ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING ORIENTATION
FOR WOMEN SET FOR JAN. 20 AT UM

MISSOULA--

An orientation meeting for an assertiveness training course sponsored by the University of Montana Women's Resource Center will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 20, in the Women's Resource Center located in the University Center.

The assertiveness training course is designed to help women confidently express and identify their needs without being hostile.

Members of the Montana Assertiveness Training Collective for Women will direct the five-week course.

Women interested in participating in the assertiveness training course are invited to attend the orientation meeting. For further information phone the Women's Resource Center, 243-4153.
