CONSCIOUSNESS-RAISING GROUPS
TO MEET AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

Persons who wish to discuss the changing roles of men and women in American society and the effects of these changes on their lives are invited to participate in consciousness-raising groups that will be forming through the University of Montana Women's Resource Center (WRC) this month.

The WRC, located in the University Center, will provide meeting space and, if requested, discussion topics under the theme, "Our Changing Sense of Self."

Separate discussion groups for men and women are planned along with a group designed for divorced women.

Persons interested in participating in the consciousness-raising groups may phone the WRC, 243-4153. Meeting dates will be arranged according to demands.
