Introduction to Political Theory

Course Description:

Introduction to Political Theory (PSC 150E) familiarizes students with the basic issues and ethical considerations that preoccupy the political theorist, including the origins of government and society, the nature of justice, and the distinction between private interest and the "public good." We will begin by considering the tension between politics and philosophy and continue with an examination of the major political theories that have shaped our contemporary political dialogues.

Course Objectives: upon successfully completing the course work, the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the political and ethical values associated with Plato, Aristotle, Locke, Hobbes, Bentham, J.S. Mill, Burke, and Marx.
2. Identify major themes and ideas associated with theories of utopianism, classical and reform liberalism, utilitarianism, conservatism, Marxism, feminism as well as contemporary variations such as neo-Marxism.
3. Complete an analytical, interpretive essay, examining some aspect of the thinker's ideas regarding the good life, revolution, natural rights, or legitimate authority.

Texts:

Ed. R. Grey, Political Theory & the Human Predicament, 2014 edition

Grading:

The work of the course consists of reading all assignments, attending lectures—students who ask questions usually have good lecture notes, completing a midterm (20% of course grade), and a 3-page, double-spaced interpretive essay (35%) and a final (35% of course grade). Student must be prepared to engage in discussion and attend regularly (10% of course grade). Caution: three points will be deducted after the first absence. Excused absences will require the appropriate documentation.

- Exam make-up policy: students must provide a doctor's note, funeral notice, or letter from a coach to make up the midterm, essay, or final.
- Please see me and UM catalog for criteria on Incomplete Grades.
