'AMERICA IN AND AGAINST THE WORLD'
IS TOPIC OF FREE LECTURE WEDNESDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

Dr. Ronald F. Perrin, associate professor of philosophy at the University of Montana in Missoula, will discuss the implications of America's involvement in international affairs at a free public lecture Wednesday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. in room 215 of the UM Women's Center.

Perrin's lecture, entitled "America in and Against the World," is the fifth in the American Issues Forum Bicentennial Lecture Series. The series is sponsored under a $900 grant from the UM-based Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH).

Wednesday's discussion and the other lectures in the series, scheduled on alternate Wednesdays, are in conjunction with the American Issues Forum II Course by Newspaper, an extension course offered by the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs (CCESP).

The newspaper course consists of a series of essays published in the Sunday Missoulian.

Material discussed during the American Issues Forum Bicentennial Lecture Series will not be included in the course by newspaper's examinations, which are scheduled for March 17 and May 26 at UM.

Coordinators of the course by newspaper and the lecture series are Dr. Leo B. Lott, professor of political science at the University, and Kim Williams, an instructor for the CCESP.
