MISSOULA--

Three University of Montana students who are studying for the master of fine arts degree will read works from their own poetry and fiction writings Wednesday, March 10, in the University Center (UC) Lounge at UM.

Madeline DeFrees, professor of English at UM, will introduce the students at Wednesday's program, which will begin at 8 p.m. in the UC Lounge.

UM students reading from their own works will include Mark E. Clemens, Missoula, a graduate of Iowa State University, Ames, who will read poetry; Nels F. Hanson, Selma, Calif., a graduate of the University of California at Santa Cruz, who will read poetry and fiction, and Leslie Denise Sennett, Missoula, who will read poetry.

Wednesday's program is open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the UC Programming Services office.
