MISSOULA--

University of Montana's Jazz Workshop, a 20-member student group conducted by Lance R. Boyd, director of jazz studies on the Missoula campus, will present a number of free public concerts in various Montana communities Saturday through Thursday, April 3-8.

Free performances during the group's annual tour are sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music.

Besides the jazz concerts, which will feature a number of the group's most popular musical works, the Jazz Workshop also will present a music clinic at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday, April 6, in the Glasgow High School Auditorium.

The first concert in the tour series will be at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 3, in the Columbia Falls High School Auditorium.

A listing of the dates, locations and times of the other tour concerts follows.

MONDAY, April 5--Fort Benton High School Gymnasium, assembly concert, 1:55 p.m.; Student Union Ballroom, Northern Montana College, Havre, 8 p.m.

TUESDAY, April 6--Glasgow High School Auditorium, assembly concert, 1:30 p.m.; Wolf Point High School Auditorium, 8 p.m.
