MISSOULA--

Ann Regan, Billings, a junior in history and Russian at the University of Montana in Missoula, has been awarded the $1,000 Edward Earl Bennett Memorial Scholarship for 1976-77 at UM.

Regan, 20, who is a June 1973 graduate of Billings Senior High School, was named recipient of the award for her general excellence, including her scholastic record. She is a member of Phi Alpha Theta, scholastic history honorary.

A University junior majoring in history or history and political science is named each year to receive the award.

The Edward Earl Bennett Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by the late Dr. Bennett's son, Harold E. Bennett of China Lake, Calif., with a $20,000 grant in 1971, following his father's death. The elder Bennett was a member of the UM faculty 33 years.

Regan is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Regan Jr., 204 Mountain View Blvd., Billings.
