MISSOULA--

Dr. Charles Horejsi, associate professor of social work at the University of Montana in Missoula, will present a special Centennial lecture on social work practice in the field of mental retardation at the 100th annual meeting of the American Association on Mental Deficiency Sunday through Friday, May 30-June 4, in Chicago, Ill.

Besides presenting the Centennial lecture, Horejsi also will make a presentation and serve as moderator during a panel discussion with three other persons from the Missoula State area during the Chicago meeting. Other panelists will include Rep. Ann Mary Dussault, D-Missoula; Georgena Dutton, Social and Rehabilitation Services regional specialist on developmental disabilities, and Ann Berkley, research assistant in the Department of Social Work at UM.

Topic of the panel discussion will be "Concepts and Issues of Planning and Service Delivery for the Developmentally Disabled in Rural Areas."
