ABOUT 500 PARTICIPATING IN UM PRE-SESSION

MISSOULA--

Approximately 500 persons are participating in the 1976 Summer Pre-Session classes at the University of Montana in Missoula, according to figures released by the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs (CCESP).

A total of 25 classes are being completed through Friday under the one-week pre-session program administered by the CCESP. All of the courses are self-supporting.

The pre-session at the University is one/seven academic programs of varying lengths offered this summer on the Missoula campus for the convenience of participants.

Another five-day program, the UM Summer Intersession, will be from July 19-23. The first 4-week and 4½-week and the 9-week sessions begin Monday, June 21, at UM. The second 4½-week session begins July 22, and the second 4-week session begins July 26 at UM.

Summer session activities conclude Aug. 20 at UM.

Additional UM Summer Session information may be obtained by contacting the CCESP, room 107 of Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801, or by phoning the office, 243-2900.
