JOHN MASON, STEVE CONNELL TO TEACH IN ART
DURING 1976 SUMMER SESSION AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

John Mason, a teacher at Hunter College in New York City, and Steve Connell, who has taught for seven years at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, will teach ceramics and sculpture programs during the 1976 Summer Session at the University of Montana in Missoula.

The academic programs in art will be presented by the UM Department of Art through the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs (CCESP).

Mason, a New York teacher who is on leave from the University of California, Irvine, will teach a one-week workshop in ceramic-sculpture at UM. The workshop, available for two academic credits, will be from June 28-July 2 in the UM Art Annex.

Persons interested in the workshop taught by Mason may contact the UM art department office for additional information by phoning 243-4181.

Connell will teach independent work and advanced courses in ceramics and sculpture for two to six credits during the first 4½-week session at UM beginning Monday, June 21, and continuing through July 21.

Questions or requests for bulletins and applications for UM Summer Sessions may be directed to the Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs, 107 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801. The phone number at the CCESP office is 243-2900.
