ACCORDIONIST TOM COLLINS TO PERFORM
WEDNESDAY WITH MISSOULA CITY BAND

MISSOULA--

Accordionist Tom Collins, director of the University of Montana Foundation, will be the featured soloist at the Missoula City Band Concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday, July 21, at Bonner Park. The concert, one in a series scheduled this summer, is open to the public without charge.

As soloist, Collins will do "The Bridal Rose" by C. Lavallee, and a medley of patriotic works in recognition of the Bicentennial. He also will do the "Clarinet Polka," a Polish folk tune, featuring the arrangement by David Bennett.

Alex Stepanzoff, chairman of the UM Executive Board and director of the Missoula City Band, said the band also will do a number of works during Wednesday's concert.

Included will be the trumpeting arrangement of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by Henry Fillmore; "El Capitan," a march by John Philip Sousa; "La Gazza Lodra," an overture by G. Rossini; "Colonel Bogey," a march by Kenneth J. Alford.

And, "The Entertainer," a ragtime two-step by Scott Joplin; "The Jolly Coppersmith," a humorous march by Peters; "Gold and Silver," a waltz by Franz Lehar, and "The Thunderer," a march by Sousa.
