MISSOULA--

A public exhibition and sale of about 800 original prints from the Ferdinand Roten Galleries Inc. of Baltimore, Md., will be conducted from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30, in the University Center (UC) Mall at the University of Montana, Missoula.

Included in the exhibit will be intaglio (line engravings); etchings; lithographs; woodcuts, and silk screens ranging in price from $10 to $100. Several of the items are valued at more than $100.

Original graphics included in Thursday's display and sale span six centuries, and include works by such artists as Daumier, Goya, Picasso, Miro, Hogarth; Zox; Krushenick and Matisse. Items by contemporary artists also are included in the works.

A representative of the Ferdinand Roten Galleries will be on hand during Thursday's display and sale, which is sponsored by the UC Programming Services office and the UC Art Gallery.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning the UC Programming Services office, 243-6661.
