MISSOULA--

A king and queen for the 1976 University of Montana Homecoming have been chosen to reign over Homecoming activities through Saturday, Oct. 9, at UM. Randall Snyder, Great Falls, is king and Christine Marie Hanson, Victor, is queen.

Snyder, 21, is a senior in interpersonal communication at UM and a member of Sigma Nu, a social fraternity. He was nominated for Homecoming King by members of Alpha/Pi, a social sorority. Snyder, son of Dan Snyder, Great Falls, and Gerry Feiden Snyder, Somers, is a 1973 graduate of C. M. Russell High School, Great Falls.

Hanson, 22, a senior in outdoor recreation at UM, is a member of Delta Gamma social sorority. She was nominated for Homecoming Queen by members of Sigma Phi Epsilon, a social fraternity. Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson, Victor, is a June 1972 graduate of Franklin High School, Franklin, Wis.

UM "BEAR BACKERS", an intercollegiate athletic booster organization for UM students, will feature Snyder and Hanson on a parade float during the 1976 UM Homecoming Parade Saturday. The parade, on the theme "Spirit of '76" and held in conjunction with Missoula's "Montana Days" festivities, will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 9, at the Burlington Northern Depot and will proceed south on Higgins Avenue to Dornblaser Field, site of the Homecoming football clash between the UM Grizzlies and the Northern Arizona University Lumberjacks at 2 p.m. Saturday.

The royal couple was chosen Thursday, Oct. 7, by a selection committee composed of representatives of the UM Alumni Association, the Associated Students of UM, on-campus housing staff, fraternities and sororities and the 1975 UM Homecoming queen, Catherine Jane Hemstad of Great Falls.
