MISSOULA--

A gymnastics coaches clinic will be presented Saturday, October 16 by the University of Montana division of women's intercollegiate sports in conjunction with the American Athletic Equipment Division.

The clinic, which runs from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Adams Fieldhouse Annex, will cover basic and advanced techniques on vault, bars, floor exercise and balance beam. Combinations and dance, conditioning, spotting techniques and practice will also be included in the clinic.

Debbie Halle, AIAW All-American and Whitey Anson, former NCAA All-American are clinicians. Halle, who hails from Seattle, Washington is a senior at Seattle Pacific University where she is coached by George Lewis. Anson competed for California State University at Fullerton.

The free clinic is open to coaches, physical education instructors and college students. Each coach may bring one gymnast for spotting practice.

A dutch treat dinner is scheduled to follow the clinic at 8:00 p.m.
