MISSOULA

The 76th meeting of the Montana Grizzlies and Montana State Bobcats has been sold out since last week, but Montanans will have the opportunity to watch the game on television.

Missoula's KGVO-TV will televise the annual contest for the third consecutive year and send the telecast to several Montana stations along the Grizzly-Bobcat Football Network. Virtually the entire state will be reached with the hookup.

Stations along the line include KTVM-TV, Butte, KCFW-TV, Kalispell, KRTV, Great Falls, KTCM-TV, Helena, KULR-TV, Billings, and KXGN-TV, Glendive. The broadcast begins at 1 p.m. with the pre-game show. Short informational films submitted by the two schools will be presented in the telecast.

In addition to the special television coverage of the game, Missoula's KYLT Radio will provide their regular radio broadcast of Grizzly football. KYLT serves as the flagship station along the Grizzly Network, which reaches many areas of the state.

For this game only, KYLT will send the broadcast to Bozeman's KBOZ Radio. Grizzly fans in Bozeman can hear the game on KBOZ, 1090 AM.
