February 2, 1937

President Ray Whitcomb called the meeting to order. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Dayl Graves, chairman of Publications Board, presented the recommendation of the board that the salary of the editor of the Kaimin be increased to $25.00 a month—the this to include the $90.00 scholarship already awarded to Kaimin editors. The yearly increase in salary to the editor to be $135.00.

After discussion, Warden made the motion in the form of a recommendation that Publications Board have a week to consider the plan and work out a means of paying the salary of the Kaimin editor this year and in future years. Vadheim made the second. Motion carried.

Whitcomb presented the request of the Dames club through Miss Mirrielees that the married students on the campus be allowed to bring their wives to University dramatic functions on their student activity tickets, plus a small extra fee.

Dr. Shallenberger made the motion that the chairman of the Budget and Finance committee and auditor work out a scheme by means of which any married student of the university may obtain a 50¢ auxiliary ticket which will permit his or her spouse to attend Masquers and Outside Entertainment functions. Carmody made the second. The motion was carried.

Vadheim made the motion that the emblem for assistant managers of Varsity sports be a three-inch chenille M, with J.M. (for junior manager) on it. Murphy made the second. The motion was carried.

Briggs made the motion that we accept the check for $100 being returned to Central Board because it was not needed to send a representative to Washington for the Chemistry-Pharmacy building. Whittinghill made the second. The motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
