AMERICAN COLLEGE OF PROBATE COUNSEL
TO SPONSOR ESTATE PLANNING SEMINAR

MISSOULA--

Montana members of the American College of Probate Counsel will sponsor a program on estate planning from 2-4:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 2, at the University.

The program, which will be held in Rooms 360 D and E of the University Center, will focus on problems related to probate and administration of estates.

Bjarne Johnson, Great Falls, chairman of the Probate Committee of the State Bar of Montana and past president of the American College of Probate Counsel, will discuss post-death estate planning.

Prof. Lester Rusoff of the UM Law School will discuss legislative proposals designed to protect marital deduction devises. Other Montana members of the College of Probate Counsel will discuss their experiences with the Uniform Probate Code.
