'ASHES AND EMBERS' IS THEME SELECTED
FOR 60TH FORESTERS BALL AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

"Ashes and Embers" will be the theme of the 60th Annual Foresters Ball Jan. 14-15 at the University of Montana in Missoula. The theme will be in conjunction with the 1977 UM Foresters Week theme, "Fire," Jan. 10-15 on the Missoula campus.

Events for Foresters Week, which is sponsored by the Forestry Students Association (FSA) of the UM School of Forestry, will begin with the Foresters Convocation Jan. 10.

"Boondockers Day," a display of outdoor competition by UM forestry students and challengers, will be Jan. 12. A beard and moustache contest also will be held.

The Foresters Ball, the highlight of Foresters Week activities, is designed to raise funds for the FSA Loan and Scholarship Fund.

A Foresters Ball queen will be chosen from contestants nominated by various UM student organizations.

Michael J. Miller, Tulsa, Okla., a senior in forest ecology at UM, is publicity chairman for Foresters Week. Donald L. Stadler, Britton, S.D., a senior in forestry at UM, is the committee chairman for the Foresters Ball.
