$751 DONATED RECENTLY AT UNIVERSITY
DURING 'FAST FOR A WORLD HARVEST'

MISSOULA--

A total of $751.87 recently was donated at the University of Montana in Missoula during the nationwide "Fast For A World Harvest."

Of the total obtained locally, $597.63 was sent to Oxfam-America to aid in the OA's work with small farmers in hunger stricken areas, and $154.24 went to Missoula's Poverello Center.

The Rev. Gayle Sandholm, 538 University Ave., one of the local coordinators of the fast, said those participating in the fast locally included more than 600 University students who usually eat at the UM Food Service.

Groups sponsoring the fast in the Missoula area included the Wesley Foundation, the Lutheran Student Movement, the United Campus Christian Fellowship and the Newman Center.
