April 6, 1937

The meeting was opened by President Whitcomb. Minutes of the March 30 meeting were read and approved.

Recommendations of Professor Teel for band awards were presented.

Warden made the motion that Central Board approve the recommendations made by the Band director regarding the awards to be made to those completing nine quarter hours of Band. Murphy made the second. Motion carried.

The following will receive the awards: Henry I. Grant, Thomas S. Hartwig, Leroy G. Seymour, John S. Warden and W.G. Gilbert.

Discussion on the progress of Aber Day plans followed.

Whitcomb reported on the investigation of Rhythm Rhapsodies. Grace Johnson, Student Union secretary, will oversee the production.

Discussion of methods of conducting elections this Spring followed.

Whittinghill made the motion that Central Board have a convocation the Thursday before primary elections for the purpose of presenting the candidates to the students, the four main offices being given preference to make talks and the rest of the Central Board and Class office candidates to be introduced. Carmody made the second. Motion carried.

Warden made the motion that an amendment to Whittinghill's motion be made—that the convocation be held Monday, April 19, subject to the determination of the date of Aber Day. Vadheim made the second. Motion carried.

Appointments for supervisors of the polls were made as follows: Seniors, Red Warden, Mildred McDonald; Juniors, Cliff Carmody, Margaret Lucy; Sophomores, Stan Shaw, Ruth Christiani; Freshmen, Al Vadheim, Esther Swanson.

Vadheim made the motion that 20 vote tabulators, 4 for each of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes and 8 for the freshman class, be appointed, so that votes may be checked and double checked. Tabulators to be chosen—one representative from each sorority and fraternity and two from the Independents. The President of ASMSU to oversee the counting.
