More Montana High Schools Join Debate League

Forty Montana high schools are now affiliated with the Montana High School Debate league, Ralph Y. McGinnis, instructor in speech and state director of the organization, said yesterday. The total represents an increase of only one over last year's enrollment but several of the larger high schools of the state, notably Billings, are affiliated for the first time.

Five state districts, northwest, southwest, north central, south central and eastern have been organized. Each district will have its own tournament and the winners of first and second places will be eligible to compete at the state meet here during Trackmeet week, May 15-17. District tournaments for the northwest, southwest and north central are at Whitefish, Butte and Great Falls, respectively. Meets in the other districts have not been scheduled. ## Song Contests Are Scheduled By Kujich

The intersorority and independent women's song contest has been scheduled for 7:30 o'clock Sunday, Feb. 9, and the interfraternity and independent men's contest has been set for Feb. 16 in the lounge of the Student Union building, John Kujich, Great Falls, chairman of Traditions board, said yesterday. The three finalists of each group will be heard at a convocation; cups will be awarded to the winners. Convocations committee will present short skits between songs.

Rules call for a singing group of four. A piano may be used and a fifth person may play the piano but must not sing. If only four are used, one may play the piano and sing. Novelty acts and dress acts are permissible. Each group will be allowed four minutes to present its songs. Judges will be selected from the faculty and will not include any members of the music school faculty.

Intersorority and independent women contestants in the order in which they will appear are: Alpha Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, Kappa Delta, Delta Delta Delta, Sigma Kappa, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma and Independents.

The order for the interfraternity and independent men's contest is Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Independents, Phi Sigma Kappa, Theta Chi, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Phi Delts Trim Mavericks; SX Tops SPE

A smooth passing Phi Delta Theta five defeated the Mavericks 26-16 last night and Sigma Chi ran over Sigma Phi Epsilon 55-13 to complete the first round of the Interfraternity basketball league.

The Phi Delts started at a rapid pace, using a fast-passing attack which bewildered the Independents and ran up a 10-4 lead before the game was six minutes old. They continued to build slowly to their total until a late Maverick rally cut the margin to 10 points. Dean Galles, supported by smooth team play, led the attack for the Phi Delts with 15 points, which also gained him high-point honors for the game.

Dave Garness, diminutive blond forward, paced the Maverick scoring with seven points, but John Reagan, husky footballer, was the backbone of the squad. Reagan continually controlled the ball off the backboards and directed the offensive from his center position. In the other game Sigma Chi

WORLD AND NATIONAL

By ROGER PETERSON

LONDON.—British airmen left the large naval port of Wilhelmshaven in flames after dumping bombs for hours last night. Machinery, buildings and gunstores were wrecked and probably 25 killed and 30 wounded. English also carried eggs to Bremen with almost the same results. Bulletins from Libya say no desperate attack against Tobruk is planned but it is believed it will fall within a week.

WAR PATCHES.—Nazis dive-bombed the Illustrious again in the Mediterranean, getting three direct hits on the crippled aircraft carrier, informed sources said. Thousands of Ethiopians, armed and encouraged by the British, are getting restless and ready to rise again Italy. Italians report they have counter-attacked successfully; the Greeks say they are holding ground and capturing prisoners in sub-zero weather and deep snow.

EAST.—Freezing rain and sleet, forming ice on powerlines and highways, cut off light and power in many eastern seaboard towns, cancelled air traffic and slowed highway travel.

WEST.—The army bomber which left Tacoma yesterday morning and believed crashed between Tacoma and Portland has not been heard from. Employees of Ryan Aircraft company in California have called a strike for next week, demanding a 25c-an-hour boost in pay.

Montana and Washington chapters of Phi Sigma, and of Sigma Xi, national graduate science fraternity, have been invited to take part in the celebration, Chesbro said. Invitations have also been sent to science clubs at all Montana colleges.

Program Is Varied

Program of activities for the two days includes inspection tours of the university campus, the Forestry school nursery, United States Forest Service offices, and the National Bison Range at Moiese. A reception is planned for the evening of Feb. 7 and a banquet will end festivities Feb. 8.

Dr. Paul B. Sears, research professor of Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, world authority on conservation of natural resources, will speak at the banquet, Chesbro said. Besides his work on conservation, Dr. Sears is known in several fields of botany, including ethnobotany, paleobotany, and ecology. He is considered an authority on post-glacial plants.

Banquet Open to All

"Since Dr. Sears will be unable to remain in Missoula for a convocation address, the banquet will be open to all who wish to hear him," Chesbro said. Reservations, however, will have to be made a week in advance, he added. Dr. A. I. Ortenburger, professor of zoology and associate curator of the museum at the University of Oklahoma, a renowned herpetologist, is also expected to attend.

Those serving on committees for the celebration are Robert Bowman, Lewistown, chairman of the banquet committee, and Mary Beth Clapp, Missoula, Robert Casebeer, Malcom, Iowa, Mary Rose Chappellu, Belfry, and Robert Howard, Missoula. The program committee, consists of Leonard Benjamin, Shelby, chairman, and Catherine Berg, Livingston; Allen Bond, Brockway, and Carl Fiebelkorn, Monrovia, California. Eugene Elliott, Billings, is chairman of the correspondence committee, assisted by Geraldine Peachar, Klein, and Hazel Hayden, Missoula.

USEFUL PLANTS ALSO GROW IN HOTBEDS

In the past it was the street corner rabblers who insulted the colleges by calling them "hot-beds" where all sorts of subversive influences thrive, but of late many of our respectable citizens are wondering just how true these wild accusations are.

Some are saying that the "hot-beds" are growing un-American theories of political economy and government. The important thing is that in these so-called "hot-beds" the student's intellectual curiosity is probed, he is made to wonder and to think, and eventually to arrive at his own conclusions. Subjection to the many theories and ideas in existence urges faith in a stronger America. That which makes a democracy function is the blending of the many voices and representative ideas.

What would our schools be were they denied, perhaps by misguided public opinion, the right to academic freedom. The subject touches the very core of this country's birth incorporated in our Bill of Rights.

It is said, rightfully, a little knowledge is a dangerous thing, and until we as citizens are given fairly both existing sides of economic and governmental questions there can be no true belief. Courses featuring the honest superiority of American methods and ideologies can have but one result: the advantages accruing to Americans under its philosophies.

Raymond E. Manchester has written, "Let us remember, that while garden "hot-beds" may provide rich soil and excellent growing condition for weeds, they also provide the same perfect conditions for useful plants." —DRC

I'm Right---You're Wrong

BY K. KIZER

Probably at least once in every man's life he comes to the realization that he has definitely and surely arrived; that, upon establishing his place in the sun of some minor degree of importance, people start to emulate him and worship the very ground upon which he walks. Even to making a feeble attempt to write as good a column as your truly, which is well nigh impossible, they will imitate. Hence the column sitting on the desk at dawn this morning:

I'M RIGHT, TOO

Phi Sigma Kappa defeated Sigma Nu in the opening of the interfraternity basketball league last night in a three-overtime game. Final score, 27-23. Theta Chi had little trouble in holding a rough, unpracticed SAE five to one basket while they ran up 34 points. A unique feature of this second farce was the fact that no free-throws were scored.

High point men for the league openers were Ken Smallwood for the PSK and Joe Hume for Sigma Nu; George Ryffel, Theta Chi, and John McCulley, SAE. McCulley was high point man for the entire SAE's with 2 points. The two points.

Football, wrestling and maybe even a little track were incorporated in the Sigma Nu-Phi Sigma tussle and the resulting thriller put the conservative varsity to shame. All in all, the first-nighters had a well balanced evening's entertainment—rough and tough offsetting drab and dull.

There, you have it. Written by a female member of the staff of the Great Kaimin, writing as she sees it on the front where it isn't all quiet whether it be the western front or no. Now I'm not trying to belittle this well-meaning female four-flusher-into-male-athletics or anything else. But it does prove one thing, however. There is plenty of excitement over in the men's gym during these nights when you know you should be studying and can't. Plenty of excitement and all you have to do is to go over there and have it. You don't have to play. Matter of fact, it is probably much safer if you don't.

Nevertheless here we sit while Montana's Grizzlies are off on the high road and then off on the low road, doing nothing toward seeing some good basketball. So if you want to see your favorite football star out there in basketball scanties trying to dump that ball in the bucket and now and then for-

Undefeated Cubs Win From Business Five

Coming from behind with a spirited second-half rally, the undefeated Cubs Tuesday night chalked up another victory in the City league by beating the Modern Business college five in a close 33-30 fray in the Loyola gym.

Trailing 19-13 at the half, the Frosh five began to hit the hoop regularly in the third quarter and finally forged into the lead late in the fourth period.

Leonard Beitia led the scorers with 10 points and Jack Burgess played his usual steady floor game, scoring eight points.

Entertainment Set For Game Halves

Entertainment between halves of basketball games, which in previous years consisted of song contests, has been tentatively arranged, John Kujich, Traditions board chairman, said yesterday.

At the Gonzaga-Grizzly series, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1, Jack McGuin, Harlowton, and music school twirlers will entertain for the first game; Charles F. Hertler, instructor in physical education, and a group of gymnasts will perform for the second.

A saber match and probably an M club boxing exhibition will complete the entertainment for the Idaho Southern Branch series, Feb. 14 and 15. Physical education groups and a new twirling show will perform for the Bobcat games, Feb. 28 and March 1.

ran wild in the second half, scoring 33 points to trounce Sigma Phi Epsilon 53-13.

The Sigs jumped into the lead shortly after the start of the game and continued to pour the ball through the hoop at will throughout the contest.

Good team work constantly fed the ball to Duncan McDonald, tall center, and Jack Emigh, better known as a track and football star, was responsible for the Sigs making basket after basket.

The end of the first round of play found Sigma Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Sigma Kappa and Theta Chi with one victory and no defeats, while the Mavericks, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon each has dropped one game.

School Ski Team Will Pick Squad At Deer Lodge

They will meet in front of the Student union at 7 o'clock.

Anyone able to furnish automobiles for the trip is asked to cooperate in order that as many as would like to try out can make the trip. After the tryouts the university team and the Deer Lodge team will have an informal meet.

getting and laying a side-body block or giving a right shoulder to the inside on some poor unsuspecting layman, then the men's gym from 7 to 9 o'clock four days a week is the time and place.

Rifle Matches Will Begin

The Garden City Rifle association matches will begin at 7:30 o'clock Monday night, Jan. 20, with the University Freshman, No. 1, shooting against the University Women for initial honors. The match will take place in the ROTC Rifle range.

Most of the university teams are still holding tryouts, but they will have their initial squads picked and ready to participate by next week. The full schedule for the association has been prepared and will be published next week.

Average Student Enters Library Once in 4 Days

The average university student entered the library reading room once every four days last quarter according to conclusions drawn from statistics released by the library staff yesterday. Statistics show that 46,634 persons used the reading room, an average of 582 per day and borrowed 18,923 books, periodicals and documents.

Of the volumes borrowed, 12,345 were from the two hour reserve, 5,799 from the main desk and 879 from the open shelf. The reserve book room had 12,245 visitors, an average of 166 per day.

Open shelf readers prefer fiction, it appears, as 399 fictional works circulated. Other choices were biography 123 volumes, travel 65, economics 58, drama 57, history 48, poetry 38, science 21 and miscellaneous 70. Five hundred twenty-two students and 45 faculty members and off-campus borrowers accounted for the total. Sixty-seven new books were added to the open shelf during the quarter.

Reference questions which required research by the library staff numbered 794 during the quarter, an increase of 281 over the same period last year. The added number of hours a staff member has been at the reference desk this year is accountable for the increase. This year a librarian has been on duty from 7:30 to 9 o'clock Monday through Thursday nights. A total number of questions recorded at night was 208. Forty-six questions were received by mail from 22 Montana cities in 18 different counties and from five cities outside the state.

DEAN STONE TEACHES SPAULDING'S CLASSES

Dean A. L. Stone of the journalism school, continued a 20-year tradition by teaching classes of T. C. Spaulding, forestry school dean, while Spaulding was attending forestry board meetings in Helena this week.

Dean Stone explained the use of journalism and better writing in the composition of forestry posters, and discussed fire protection and forest conservation with the forestry classes.

Most queries came from educators, forest service employees, the Federal Writers project and from librarians desiring material outside the scope of their own libraries. About one-fourth of the questions pertained to Montana—its history, geology, production, wildlife, Indians, authors and people.

Authors' Club to Hear Paper by Steinhaus

Dr. Edward A. Steinhaus, assistant bacteriologist in the Hamilton laboratory, will present a paper entitled "Man Is What His Microbes Make Him" at the monthly meeting of the Authors' club at dinner Saturday night in the Student Union building.

The paper will not be technical, said Steinhaus. Instead, an attempt will be made to explain what the presence of microbes in the world means to man, both their useful and essential activities as well as their devastating effects. He will also discuss some of the more outstanding effects of microbes on human progress and the interesting role they play in the making of the history of the world.

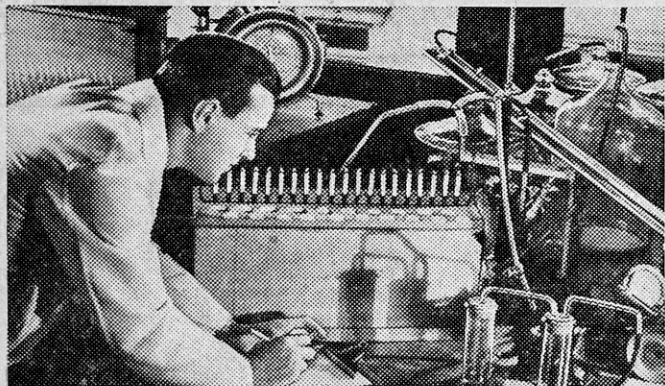

The Authors' club has 76 members from the vicinity of Missoula who have had their works published. Forty-eight are university faculty members.

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

YES, the smoke's the thing! After all, you don't get anything from a cigarette until you've lighted it... until it's burning. And there is the secret of an advantage Camel smokers have enjoyed for years. For Camel's costlier tobaccos are slower-burning.

Slower-burning for more coolness and mildness—for Camels are free from the excess heat and irritating qualities of too-fast burning. Slower-burning for more flavor because slow burning preserves tobacco flavor and fragrance.

Now Science confirms still another advantage—less nicotine in the smoke—less than any of the four other largest-selling brands tested... 28% less than the average!

Make Camels your steady smoke and enjoy all the advantages that only Camel's slower burning... costlier tobaccos can give—even economy (see left).
