THEATRICAL COSTUME DESIGNS ON DISPLAY AT UM

A display of theatrical costume designs by University of Montana students is on view in the lobby of the Masquer Theater at the University of Montana, according to Dean Charles W. Bolen of the School of Fine Arts.

Most of the work is by advanced students of Richard H. James, designer for the Department of Drama. The exhibit consists of final projects of costume-design students and contains colorful renderings of costumes for "My Fair Lady," "Once upon a Matress," "Everyman," "Camille" and other shows.

The exhibit will continue through the run of the current Masquer production, "Requiem for a Nun," which closes Sunday, April 17.
