DALE MOORE ADDRESSES
ALPHA KAPPA PSI MEET

Dale G. Moore, President of the Missoula Chamber of Commerce and Western Broadcasting Corporation, told a meeting of Alpha Kappa Psi, national fraternity for economics and business students, that an unquenchable desire to succeed is the main criteris for a successful business career.

"Every person spends 70,000 man hours at his job before retirement," said Moore, "and it is the duty of every college student to utilize this time to his maximum benefit."

Alpha Kappa Psi is a professional business fraternity which seeks to further the welfare and education of its members in all fields of business activity and tries to promote and advance college courses leading to degrees in business administration. The Omicron chapter of A.K.Psi was formed at the University of Montana in 1917.

New officers for the fraternity are President, Tom Hopkins, Havre; Vice President, Jeff Becker, Kellogg, Idaho; Secretary, Ken Henningsen, Missoula; Treasurer, Nick Teel, San Mateo, California; and Master of Rituals, Ron Brunsvold, Billings.

Brunsvold announced that a meeting for pledges and members will be held Tuesday, March 26, at 4 p.m. in B.A. 109.
