BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION SCHOOL ANNOUNCES
NEW FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP AWARD PRESENTATION

A new "Faculty Scholarship" will be presented this year to an outstanding graduate student working toward a master's degree in business administration, according to Dr. James L. Athearn, dean of the University of Montana School of Business Administration.

The award, established by the faculty of the Business Administration School, has been funded by individual contributions of faculty members.

The award makes a total of eight new scholarships instituted this year in the school.

The new award will be presented at the annual scholarship awards banquet. The banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m., Friday, May 13, in the Yellowstone Room of the University Lodge.
