April 5, 1934

At a meeting of Central Board it was decided to have an all-University day for Aber Day this year, since the campus work has already been done by F.E.R.A. workers.

Clarence Watson was appointed Aber Day manager. His assistant will be Leonard Kuka. Men who will act as committee chairmen are: Augie Vidro, novelty sports; Bill Erickson, High Court; Al Dahlberg, lunch; Bill Hawke, dance; Bob Stansberry, convocation; Monte Reynolds, sports (track and baseball).

Faye Nimbar and Helen Huxley were appointed to fill the vacancies on Publications Board, left by Mabelle Willard and Mary Sulgrove. Lewis Hablitt, chairman of publications Board suggested these names for approval.

A sum not to exceed $200 was appropriated from the Outside Entertainment money, for food on Aber Day.

Applicants for offices in the spring elections must have their petitions filed by April 12th at 4:00 o'clock.

Dick Ormsby was appointed chairman of the outside entertainment committee, to take the place of Dick Shaw.

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned.

Present: Elrod, Shallenberger, Horsky, Furlong, Gratton, Duff, Shaw.
