Twenty-One Bearpaws Tapped at Sing-On-Steps

Hello Walk Tradition Revived

Sheehy Acts As M.C.; Jackson Leads Songs, McLeod Speaks

Twenty-one sophomore men were called onto the steps of Main Hall at Singing-on-the-Steps last night to be tapped for Bearpaw Chapter, Order of Intercollegiate Knights, sophomore men's service honorary. Traditions Board Chairman Skeff Sheehy at 7:30 o'clock introduced Silent Sentinel head Harry Hesser. Hesser called the names of last year's Bearpaws who stood on the steps and welcomed the new Bearpaws.

Pledges are Arnold Riven and Ed Simmons, Missoula; Joe Treathaway, Dick Miller, Holsey Johnson, and Dan Sullivan, Butte; Bill O'Donnell and Dick Bowman, Casper, Wyo.; Carl Schiller, Chicago; Bob Wedin, Ramsay; Tony DiRe, Anaconda; Roger Baldwin, Kalispell; Barney Berger and Tom Felt, Billings; Bill Mylniek, New York City; Joe Thiebes and John Alexander, Great Falls; Charles Swab, Tacoma, Wash.; Harris Hesser, Whitehall; Harold Scott, Plains, and James Hodges, Laurel.

Hesser explained that the men were named to the organization on the basis of character, service, and scholarship.

Skeff Sheehy came back to the microphone and explained to new students and freshmen that the walk between the Library and the Law School Building is traditionally known as "Hello Walk." Students in passing each other on this walk whether they know each other or not should say, "Hello."

Joint-Enlistment Board Of Armed Forces Here

The traveling joint-enlistment board representing Army, Navy and Marine Corps is on the University campus at the present time and will be until Monday. Lieutenant Elery Van Deist, Lieutenant John A. Goggin, Lieutenant Richard Roman and Lieutenant Hale, representing Navy V-1 and V-7, Naval Air Corps, Army and Marine Corps, respectively, compose the joint board.

The Navy and Marine Corps are enlisting students in their program in the Men's Gymnasium and the Army is enlisting in the ROTC building.

Application forms for Navy V-1 and V-7 must be approved by Burly Miller, dean of men, before the student appears before the board for enlistment. Students interested in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps who have not already had an interview with Dean Miller must do so before they can apply for enlistment.

University Beet Workers On Patriotic Basis—Johnson

Employment of University students as workers in the sugar beet fields of the Missoula region is now definitely on a patriotic and intensive basis, announced Harlan Johnson, Butte, who was appointed coordinator between the University and the U. S. Employment Service.

Isaacson Given Presidency Of Masquers

Carl Isaacson, Plentywood, was unanimously elected president of Montana Masquers at their first meeting Tuesday in Simpkins Hall auditorium. Robert Ackerlund, Missoula, was elected vice-president; Virginia Perkins, Harlowton, secretary; and Arnold Rivin, Missoula, business manager.

Larrea Haydon, director of dramatics, discussed a program of activities with the group and urged strong organization throughout the school year. Possibilities for a fall quarter production were also discussed. Final decision as to what the production will be will be announced shortly, Mr. Haydon stated.

Following the meeting tryouts were held for those interested in participating in the year's forthcoming dramatic productions.

NYA Allotment Amounts to $6,615

The University NYA office reported yesterday that 45 students have been accepted for NYA work. A small number of these were employed during registration only.

The appropriation for this year amounts to $2,205 per quarter, or a total of $6,615 for the year.

The use of students as beet laborers is a patriotic gesture in response to the crying need for help to harvest the beet crop of western Montana. First action was taken after a special meeting of representatives of three Montana institutions at the request of Gov. Sam C. Ford.

In the plan which calls for an intensive schedule ending Wednesday, each fraternity house will furnish two groups to spend a day in the fields pulling and topping beets. Students participating in the drive will be excused from school, but each man must have his name on the list of registered workers. This will be attended to by one man in each house. A girls' committee headed by Doris Morley, Livingston, will prepare written excuses for registered workers so that they may make up classes missed on the laboring day.

Captain Davis To Transfer From Missoula

U.S. Infantry Instructor Has Been With Army Since 1940

The military science department has been advised that Captain Oliver T. Davis, U. S. Infantry instructor at the University since September 1, 1940 when he was shifted here from Fort Missoula, would soon be transferred. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors alike will recall Captain Davis as the officer who gave them their first taste of military life. Advanced army students will remember him as their instructor during the spring and winter quarters.

As a former athlete for the University of Idaho from which he graduated in 1933, the captain became very much interested in Grizzly sports upon his arrival at Montana. He has devoted a good deal of his time to the University rifle team which he managed.

Captain Davis has not yet been told where he will be sent or when he will leave the University. Not too happy about leaving, the Captain expressed his sentiments "Both Mrs. Davis and I have enjoyed it here in Missoula." He backed up that statement by concluding that he and his family plan to return to Missoula after the war.

Bill Bellingham '42, former Kaimin editor, is stationed at Camp Robinson,

Norman Names Stephens, Eichorn, Cadet Majors; Lieutenants Take Over

Lt. Col. Lewis S. Norman, U. S. Infantry, professor of military science and tactics at the University, has announced the appointment to the Grizzly regiment of Robert B. Emrick, Conrad, as cadet colonel, and Ben F. Stephens, Great Falls, and Lawrence M. Eichorn, Missoula, as cadet majors. All three have received these appointments because of outstanding work in advanced army. They are scheduled to complete their military courses at the University this quarter.

Central Board OK's Change In Kaimin

Decrease in Advertising; Low Circulation Given As Reason for Cut

Central Board at its regular weekly meeting approved the reduction of the Kaimin to a bi-weekly publication until finances improve to the state that it can again be increased to a tri-weekly publication. Peg Thrallkill, Kaimin business manager, and Ray Fenton, Kaimin editor, presented a report which indicated the necessity for the discontinuance of the third issue if the paper is to continue.

National advertising in the University publication has shown a decrease of 10 per cent, stated Miss Thrallkill, and the percentage may even reach 25 per cent. Local advertising has shown a similar decrease, she continued. In view of the fact that a third issue constitutes a deficit, Kaimin managers deemed it wise to discontinue the third publication, which will give more assurance to the continuance of the publication through the duration. "It is the hope of staff members that next year the Kaimin may again be increased," Miss Thrallkill said.

Central Board approved the action and passed a motion providing for the issuance of the Kaimin not less than twice weekly. Such action gives flexibility to the move for if Kaimin managers find it possible to increase to three issues during spring quarter they may do so.

Board members approved the salary budget for Sentinel editor, business manager and photographer as submitted by Aline Mosby, 1943 Sentinel editor.

Lieut. Clayton Creg and wife of Mount Ord, Calif., were visitors of Dean C. E. F. Mollett and the pharmacy school recently.

The Community Concert season will open Nov. 13 with Lansing Hatfield, outstanding American baritone, as soloist, Oakley Coffee, president of the Missoula Concert Association, said yesterday. The association will offer the Russian Ballet to its Missoula audiences as the foremost attraction of the year.

Coffee said that audiences this year have in store for them one of the most outstanding programs to be presented in Missoula.

Army Team Wants To Battle Grizzlies

The Second Air Force's football team of Great Falls is trying to schedule a game with the Montana Grizzlies, Lieut. Vernon A. Vail Jr., public relations officer for the base, announced last week.

Vail indicated that he would like to hear from Kirk Badgley, University athletic manager, in connection with such a game. If the University were interested, Vail would contact officers at Second Air Force headquarters at Spokane and they in turn would make arrangements with Badgley.

Ballet, has been classed as one of the outstanding ballets of the world.

Feb. 18, the Budapest String Quartette will appear, and Feb. 26 Robert Casadesus, French pianist, will be featured. Casadesus, one of the world's greatest pianists, has been in the United States for the last four years, during which time he has become very popular with American audiences.

University students, as in past years, will be admitted to the concert on their activity tickets.

STUDENTS SHOULD REALIZE THE IMPORT OF THE TASK

To be able to live in this world, even today, is indeed a privilege of which one should take every advantage. Even though the world is tearing itself asunder, life here in America is glorious. No matter how terrible the conflict abroad, we should do our best to enjoy ourselves and the marvelous inventions that have been offered us by the human race.

Students fortunate enough to be going to a college or university should realize how lucky they are to be sitting safely in a classroom learning about what is happening to other war-torn colleges and institutions of learning.

Thinking about one's friends in the midst of the strife is naturally disheartening and hard to forget, even for a moment. But this thinking and worrying won't get us any place.

Day by day our friends, companions and relatives are being brought into the war. We should not try to prevent their serving their country; not only serving their homeland, but sacrificing their very lives and dreams they have dreamed ever since a dream could formulate in their minds. But it is terribly hard to leave the accustomed home life, the familiar trees of the home town, the girl they left behind, and everything that went to make up a day's living in the old home town.

Yet it would be a terrible thing to have any aggressor come marching into one of our coastal towns tearing it to pieces and destroying everything in its wake.

So let's study and do a little serious thinking, until the time comes when our country needs and calls us to serve it in order that we may pay for some of the things we have enjoyed these years on its soil. And when the time approaches that we must don a uniform of the United States of America, let's not be griping all the time about giving our life for our country, but think of what it has done for us. And don't forget, neighbor, the United States of America was and is the greatest place on earth.—C. M.

Merrill Talks To Rotarians On CPT Plan

Dr. A. S. Merrill, University Flight Coordinator, discussed the Civilian Pilot Training program at the Rotary Club Wednesday night.

Dr. Merrill traced the program from its inception in 1938 to the present. He pointed out that in 1928 11 schools of the country with 20 students each were put on an experimental basis to check on the advisability of continuing the work.

In 1939 the University, along with several other schools, set up regular training programs in connection with flight training services. In Missoula the Johnson Flying Service was selected as the flight training unit.

Dr. Merrill said that the co-operation of the Johnson Flying Service was excellent and that it is credited with being the best training unit in the northwest. Flight Instructor Frank Wiley was present at the meeting and was introduced by Dr. Merrill.

Coke Machine Won't Give Out

Seems that the journalism building's throat dampener, better known as the coke machine, has been out of cokes for the past three days, and endless numbers of nickels have given the machine a lazy attitude towards its place and job in life.

The Coca Cola company reports that the journalism school's coke ration for the month of October is 15 cases, or 360 bottles which amounts to $18 for the month.

Anyway, what we have been trying to say is that the journalism coke machine is out of cokes and no matter how many coins you put in, nothing, neighbor, will come out!

PAT's PATER

By PAT COHE

It's a fine thing! Once a person gathers enough of what it takes to get himself over to the library, he finds the battle's just beginning. First, it's an acute shortage of seats, then the not-so-quiet painters and then — flies. It's most discouraging to those who aren't much enthused, anyhow, and seems like those painters have been at it just about long enough.

Diamonds of the day went to Betty Hodson (Barlow Ghirardo) and Robby Myrick (Allen Smith).

Something new — the idea of an all-school party which is about to become a reality. It's sponsored by everyone of us through committees and service organizations. It's for fun and soon; so be a'keepin' your eyes open for it's final announcement.

We've heard something about "bats in your belfry," but it was a bat in Heaven at the D. G. house Wednesday night. The brave in heart held a baton and looked at him; the rest clutched their tresses and screamed. But one proved her merit, stunned the little bat and threw him out the window. Bet he was glad. (Ed. Note: And how!)

And then Jim O'Laughlin hung his pin — his big brother's pin, rather — on Pat Lake. It probably means a lot to Pat and Jim, but it means a new pair of shoes to the big brother.

NOTICE

University men wishing employment are urged to call at the Dean of Men's office for further information concerning part-time jobs, Burly Miller, dean of men, announced yesterday.

Platt Starts Red Cross Nutrition Class

In line with the student demand, as expressed at the last Student-Faculty bull session, for an increase in Red Cross activities on the campus, Miss Anne C. Platt, instructor in the home economics department, has announced plans for the formation of a Red Cross course in nutrition.

The class, a general discussion group meeting at two-hour sessions, will be open to all students of the University who are interested. Red Cross certificates are to be awarded to the graduates. No regular meeting date has been set as yet but a preliminary meeting is called for Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Room 307 of the Natural Science building. All interested students unable to attend this first meeting should plan to contact Miss Platt or Miss Cyril Van Duser.

Although nutrition courses have previously been offered to the townspeople of Missoula this is the first time that an all-student course has been offered here and this course is the first to be organized in Missoula this fall. Missoula's Red Cross courses for town-people will start soon.

Grizzlies Leave Today For Second PCC Tilt With Washington U Team

New Signal System Outlined by Carpenter
Enthusiastically Received by Grizzly Roster;
Huskies Still Use Notre Dame Offense

Grizzlies go a'questing for their first conference win of the season today when they leave for Seattle to mix with "Pest" Welch's band of Washington Huskies. Montana goes to the coast city with three losses and no wins to look back on, while the Huskies are riding high on the crest of the conference standings with two wins and a scoreless tie. Grizzly practice sessions this week have been devoted entirely to learning the new signal system which Clyde

Carpenter, new head coach, intends to use. The new style has been enthusiastically received by the whole squad and the big question now is whether the Montana team can make the new system work with only four days acquaintance.

Washington's Offense

Huskies, although under a new head coach this year, are still using the Phelan type of Notre Dame offense with a man in motion—now you see it and now you don't—variation. They have an exceptionally bizarre collection of players ranging from bald-headed Croatians from Chicago to 240-pound Hawaiians from Honolulu, all acquired by a hard-working alumni but who are naturally going to Washington university mainly for an education. They play football only as a sideline and spend most of their time in the classrooms.

Former High School Players

By mere coincidence, two former Montana high school players are in the Husky lineup. Neil Brooks, fullback from Livingston, will start the game against the Grizzlies. Brooks has been making a good name for himself in football circles since he enrolled in the coast school. He would have enrolled at Montana, but he could not get the course he desired to take. Brooks is interested in engineering and it was his passionate desire for that type of knowledge that sent him to Washington. The other Montana boy in the Husky camp is Larson, from Great Falls.

Montana's Starting Roster

Montana's starting array for the game will be as follows: Schiller and Burke, ends; Drahos and Thiebes, tackles; Mather and Dahmer, guards, and Reynolds, center. In the backfield will be Bill Leaphart, quarterback; Scott or Bowman, left halfback; Fiske or Berger, fullback, and Ferris or Harold Scott, right halfback. Harold Scott has jumped up to a possible starting assignment because of his impressive play against the Washington State Cougars last week.

Bell Contemplates Colorful Spectacle

That muffled roar heard on and near the University campus these afternoons isn't an airplane armada descending on Missoula. It's a corps of 20 beautiful Tri-Delt girl drummers rehearsing for a between-the-halves show during the Idaho-Montana football game, scheduled for October 31.

Clarence Bell, director of the University band, is planning a spectacle for the traditional game which will top even the performance during the recent Mather Field game. He will use scores of lovely coeds, drilling along with the band, including the Tri-Delt drum corps, a twirling corps of 25 expert baton-twisters and as many flag-swingers.

Though final details of the program haven't been announced yet, Mr. Bell says the show will be one of the best ever presented. When the Grizzlies meet their traditional rivals, the Idaho Vandals, in what has always been the biggest game of the season, the band wants to prove that it is one of the best drilled bands in the west.

Coach Carp Tells Troubles

Clyde Carpenter, newly appointed head coach of Montana Grizzlies, has inherited a considerable headache in the form of injuries, and one of the toughest schedules a Montana team has faced in decades.

Carpenter, contemplating only a few minor changes in the system used by "Jiggs" Dahlberg, stated: "I will coach the football I know."

Navy Cadets Show Power Over Fraternity Squads

Phi Delt Squad Only Greek Team Unbeaten;
Will Meet Powerhouse Navy Nine Next Week
In Second Round of Clover Bowl Series

Interfraternity touchball got under way Tuesday night with Phi Delta Theta, present only undefeated fraternity nine, trouncing Phi Sigma Kappa, 6-3, and Naval Air Corp Cadets taking the Sigma Nu nine into camp, 29-0. Wednesday Theta Chi and the Navy recruits defeated Sigma Chi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, respectively, by identical scores, 12-0. Last night Sigma Nu beat the Phi Sig squad, 12-0, and Phi Delta Theta won by a 15 to 0 margin over Theta Chi.

Tuesday Games

Starting with a bang, the Phi Delt's scored on the second play of the initial tilt when Potter passed to Nutting in the end zone to take the jump on the PSK team.

The second stanza saw the PSK's march down the field on a series of running and passing plays sparked by Tom Tarpo, and finally tally three points on Tarpo's drop-kick from midfield.

The PDT's, led by Potter, dominated the rest of the game, but never were quite able to score. The game was characterized by innumerable penalties, with both teams fouling frequently.

In the second game, the aerial-minded cadets wasted no time in taking the upper hand. The first tally came on a pass from Roberts, cadet tailback, to Klein, after Hoover intercepted the Sigma Nu initial pass. Ruffcorn converted. Three navy touchdowns followed in quick succession. Klein set up the second score with a pass interception, after which Roberts tossed to Jesmer and then to Klein, making the score 13-0.

Millison, hard-charging cadet guard, recovered a bad Sigma Nu pass in the end zone for the third touchdown, and Ruffcorn again converted the extra point. Roberts

Nadler Announces Plans For University Fun Night

Rally, Convo, Dance, Games, Recorded Music, Will Furnish Entertainment for Celebration Of Homecoming, Hallowe'en

Betty Nadler, Billings, chairman of the social committee, announced yesterday that October 30 has been set aside as ASMSU Fun Night. This program has been planned with the cooperation of students and faculty to celebrate both Homecoming and the Hallowe'en holiday.

The entertainment will start at 7:30 in the evening with the Homecoming rally. Students will march through town, through fraternity and sorority houses and dorms, around the campus, and wind up at the Student Union. The group will then go to the Student Union auditorium, where Mike O'Connell, Butte, will direct an hour's convocation. This will be a convocation dedicated only to entertainment, and will not contain any long speeches.

Students May Dance

Following the convocation, students will divide into various groups, according to their taste. Those who like to dance may go to the Gold Room where "Punk'n James and His Black Cats" will provide the music for the "all-out Hallowe'en hop." For those who don't care to dance there will be other entertainment. The Silver Room has been designated as game room for pool, ping-pong and skill ball. The Eloise Knowles room has been set aside for supervised card games. Recorded symphonic music will be played in the Copper Room.

Nadler Stresses Point

Miss Nadler suggested that perhaps the biggest point to be stressed is that the entire evening will be free. There is a slight pos-made the last Navy touchdown late in the first quarter on an intercepted pass. The only other scoring came in the third stanza when Ruffcorn made a long field-goal from his own 45-yard line.

Wednesday Games

Displaying brilliant passing attacks, the Theta Chi and Navy touch football teams downed their respective opponents, Sigma Chi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 12-0. Stirratt's passes to Schindel and Musket were the ground gainers for the winning fraternity team, while the combination of Roberts to Hoover was effective in the Navy win.

Late in the second quarter Theta Chi got a first down on the Sig three as Harkins was called on interfering with the pass receiver. A short pass from Stirratt to Watson gave Theta Chi their first six points. The try for point was not good.

The second half was fought on an even basis until, with only 40 seconds left in the game, Stirratt tossed one to Schindel for another score for Theta Chi. The try for point was not good.

In the second game of the afternoon Sigma Alpha Epsilon took the ball on the kickoff but failed to gain and punted to the Navy. After a few plays Navy scored on a long toss from Roberts to big Bud Hoover. Hoover's attempted place-kick went wide and Navy led 6-0.

Again in the third quarter the Navy team scored on another pass from Roberts to Hoover. A bad pass from center spoiled the try for point. SAE opened up a last-quarter drive on a long pass from Burgess to Kyle which earned a first down deep in Navy territory. After three plays failed to score, an attempted punt was blocked by the Navy, as the game ended.

Thursday Games

A hard fighting Sigma Nu nine out-scored Phi Sigs, 12-0, and Phi Deltas walked away with the second game, scoring 23 points and keeping an outclassed Theta Chi team from crossing into pay-dirt.

Sigma Nu scored first in the second stanza on a pass from Ray Reider to Tony DiRe, who caught the partially blocked ball on the 15 and sprinted across. The attempted conversion was blocked. The first play of the last stanza saw Sigma Nu score on a pass from Reider to DiRe.

The game was much closer than the score showed. The accurate passing of George O'Connell and dangerous punting of Tom Tarpo were a constant threat to the winners.

Phi Delta Theta, after being held scoreless the first quarter by a scrappy but outclassed Theta Chi team, proceeded to score at will in the second period and continued to keep the ball throughout the game. The first score came on a field goal by Potter, followed by touchdown passes from Potter to Eigeman. Templeton scored in the second stanza and DeGroot in the last period.

Completion of correspondence courses with previous registration amounted to 117 for the four months.

In the regular correspondence course a student does his own work whereas in extension an instructor meets with students, Miss Courtney explained.

Registration was in bacteriology and hygiene, business administration, economics and sociology, education, English, history and political science, home economics, mathematics, modern languages, music, psychology and journalism.

Executive board of Press club will meet at 4 o'clock today in Prof. R. L. Housman's office in the journalism building, president Dorothy Rochon announced. All class delegates are urged to attend.

Indicating that there will be openings in the Civilian Pilot Training Program for a limited number of students who have failed in an attempt to enlist in the Army air forces, Dr. A. S. Merrill, coordinator, announced that the new course will begin in a few weeks.
