CLOTHING WORKSHOP TO BE HELD ON UM CAMPUS

The Department of Home Economics at the University of Montana will sponsor a one-week workshop July 18-23 on "Clothing Construction in Adult Education."

Mrs. Kitty Rotruck, nationally known specialist in this area, will conduct the workshop which will feature the newest developments in clothing construction and tailoring techniques.

While the six-day program is planned especially for the teacher of adult clothing classes, the workshop is open to others who are interested. Since enrollment will be limited, anyone wishing to be accepted in the class should contact Mrs. Emma Briscoe, UM Department of Home Economics.
