The officers and committee heads were recently announced for the Associated Women Students at the University of Montana. The women will serve until next spring quarter.

The officers, who were elected by the women, are Sally McIntosh, president, Billings; Carol Nelson, first vice-president of standards, Missoula; Jan Lamereux, second vice-president of committees, Corvallis; Meg Wierzbinski, treasurer, Billings; Bonnie Pfiefle, recording secretary, Great Falls; Helen Jean Zimmerman, corresponding secretary, Missoula; and Pam Patrick, historian, Rudyard.

AWS dates back to 1914 when it was formed on the UM campus as the Women's League. Since then it has developed into a self-ruling body governing women's activities.

This year the state president of the Montana Intercollegiate Association of Women Students is a UM coed, Linda Harbine of Plains.

The committee chairmen for the coming year are Bonnie Rohrer, publicity, Billings; Kay Caskey, special activities, Choteau; Jill Beck, transfer student program, Drummond; Jane Nordland, big-little sister party, Billings; Kitty Fulton, fund raising, Missoula; Heidi Clark, summer job opportunities, Billings; Sally Smith, rules and regulations, Anaconda; Carol Howell, interscholastics, Moiese; Kathy Cummings and Coy Davidson, the lantern parade, from Missoula and Choteau respectively; Andrea Grauman, Miss U of M contest, Miles City; Janna Erlandson, University Hostess, Missoula; and Margaret Borg, Missoula girls committee, Missoula.
