Required Course Materials:

Textbook: Individual Income Taxes – 2015 Edition; Hoffman, Smith; South-Western/Cengage Learning (custom textbook)

Note: The textbook sold in the bookstore is a customized version of the individual income tax textbook. It is less expensive than a full textbook and contains only the material that will be covered in this course. The new textbooks sold in the bookstore include a CengageNow Access Code card. CengageNow is a web-based homework management system. If you purchase a textbook from a source other than the UM bookstore, you will also need to purchase a CengageNow Access Code card.

Points and Grading:

Point Allocation:

Exam #1	100
Exam #2	100
Exam #3	100
Final Exam	156
Quizzes	64
CengageNow Assignments/Other	130
Total Possible Points	650

Grades will be assigned based on the total points accumulated in the course during the semester. Plus/minus grading will be used in this course to differentiate students who are close to a grade cutoff.

This course is offered for a traditional letter grade only.

Final course grades are not negotiable.

Homework assignments: Chapter homework assignments will be completed online using the CengageNow homework management system. Each completed homework problem is worth two points. Due dates for these assignments are indicated on the CengageNow website. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Other Assignments: Other assignments must be completed and submitted to the instructor when due to receive full credit. English grammar, spelling, and punctuation will be graded.

Cheating: Cheating on an exam, quiz, or assignment will result in a score of zero on that exam, quiz, or assignment. Cheating on more than one exam, quiz, or assignment will result in a failing course grade.

Points and Grading (continued):

Incompletes: An incomplete grade for the semester is not an option to be exercised at the discretion of a student. In all cases it is given at the discretion of the instructor within the following guidelines. A mark of incomplete may be assigned students when (1) they have been in attendance and doing passing work up to three weeks before the end of the semester, and (2) for reasons beyond their control and which are acceptable to the instructor, they have been unable to complete the requirements of the course on time. Negligence and indifference are not acceptable reasons.

Other Important Grade Information:

This course is required for students majoring in accounting and must be completed with a C- or better to count towards graduation.

CengageNow Homework Manager:

This course requires that you prepare and submit homework assignments using the CengageNow homework manager. During the first week of class you should complete the CengageNow registration. Information on how to access CengageNow is provided on Moodle.

Graduate Increment:

This course is available for graduate credit for students who received instructor permission in advance. For this course to count for credit in a graduate program additional work is required. The student must complete a tax research paper in addition to the other course requirements. The topic of the paper, and research expectations, must be agreed to in consultation with the course professor at the beginning of the semester. There are 50 possible points available for the research paper. The student's final course grade will be based on their combined performance on the research paper and the undergraduate course requirements.

Expectations of Students

Textbook: Bring your textbook to class every day.

Calculators: Bring a calculator to class every day. Accounting/Finance Department approved calculators are required for ALL quizzes and exams.

Personal Electronic Devices: All personal electronic devices should be turned off during class.

Class Attendance: Plan to arrive on time and prepared for each class. Arriving late or departing early is disrespectful to the instructor and your classmates. If you must leave class, please do not return during that class meeting. If you know in advance that you will need to leave class early, let the instructor know before class starts.

Student Conduct: The University of Montana Student Conduct Code, embodying the ideals of academic honesty, integrity, human rights, and responsible citizenship, governs student conduct in this course. The Student Conduct Code is available for review at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

Moodle: Information about class assignments, tests, etc. is posted on the Moodle site for this course. You are expected to check the Moodle site on a daily basis.

Exams and Quizzes: During quizzes and exams everything should be cleared off the desk except calculators, pens and pencils, and extra blank sheets of paper for calculations. Cell phones must be put away.

Exams belong to Department of Accounting & Finance. Keeping exams and/or making copies of exams will be considered a violation of the University of Montana Student Conduct Code.

Final Exam: A specific time and date for the final exam is assigned for this course. The final exam is an integral part of this course and students are expected to take the final exam on the scheduled time and date.

Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities will receive reasonable modifications in this course. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. "Reasonable" means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. Your responsibilities are to request reasonable modifications from me with sufficient advance notice (preferably the first week of class), and to be prepared to provide verification of disability and its impact from Disability Services for Students. Please speak with me after class or during my office hours to discuss the details. For more information, visit the Disability Services for Students website at <http://life.umt.edu/dss>.
