Classes ranging from an opera workshop to an aerospace education workshop will be offered at the 1966 University of Montana summer session which begins Monday, June 20.

The session will be divided into four parts; a nine week session beginning June 20 and ending August 19, the first half-session running from June 20 through July 20, the mid-session July 7 through July 20 and the second half-session beginning July 21 and ending August 19.

University Registrar Leo Smith said about 2,500 students are expected to attend the summer session. Last summer's registration was 2229.
