MISSOULA--

The University of Montana's 1978-79 basketball press guide and its 1978-79 basketball game programs received awards recently in district competition.

The press book was a District 7 honorable mention, while the programs were awarded third place in the district. The awards were given by the College Sports Information Directors of America at the group's national convention held in late June in Chicago.

District 7 includes Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah.

The publications were compiled and edited by Dave Guffey, UM's sports information director. They were printed on the UM campus.
