MANNING RECITAL SLATED TUESDAY

Baritone Douglas C. Manning, University of Montana graduate student from Kalispell, will present a recital Tuesday (Aug. 9) at 8:15 p.m. in the UM Recital Hall, according to Dean Charles W. Bolen of the School of Fine Arts.

The program includes a cycle of 16 songs by Schumann, selections by Gounod, Beethoven, Gretchanioff and MacDowell, and works by UM composers E. G. Harris and Arthur Griesel. Harris is represented by "The Timberline Crag," and Griesel, by two songs for baritone, "The Passionate Shepherd" and "Pavane for the Nursery."

The recitalist will be accompanied at the piano by Fredericka Ibsen, Missoula, and assisted in the performance of Griesel's songs by Missoulians James Peterson, guitar; Jerry Mader, viola; Ken Grant, cello, and Linus Carleton, bass.

The recital, open to the public without charge, will partially fulfill requirements for the master of music degree in applied music. The degree will be conferred at the close of summer session in August.

Manning, who holds a bachelor's degree from the UM, was a member of Jubileers and Opera Workshop for four years and of the University Choir for five years. He belongs to Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Pi Kappa Lambda music honoraries, Silent Sentinel, Montana Masquers and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. A voice student of Profs. John Lester and George Lewis, he has held Stanley Teel and Wayne Montgomery scholarships. In 1965-66 he served as Graduate Council representative for the fine arts.

Manning will teach next year at Eielson Air Force Base, Alaska. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Manning, 1027 7th Ave. E., Kalispell.
