FULL-SCALE GRIZZLY SCRIMMAGE
SLATED FOR SATURDAY MORNING
AT DORNBLASER STADIUM

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana football team will get its first taste of a game-type atmosphere Saturday, Sept. 8, in a full-scale scrimmage at Dornblaser Stadium. The scrimmage begins at 10 a.m. and should conclude by noon.

Coach Gene Carlson and his staff are preparing for their season opener, which is Sept. 15 against Washington State University of the Pacific-10 Conference. That game is in Spokane at 7 p.m. (6 p.m. Mountain time).

Scrimmages, as well as UM practices, are open and free to the public.
