UM DEAN WILL ATTEND INTERNATIONAL MEET

Dean Charles W. Bolen of the University of Montana School of Fine Arts will participate in the seventh annual International Conference of the International Society for Music Education, scheduled Aug. 18-26 at Interlochen, Mich.

Attendance at the conference will be something of a homecoming for the dean, who taught at the Interlochen National Music Camp for eight summers prior to coming to Montana in 1962.

The conference dates coincide with the last three days of the National Music Camp and include several days of the Interlochen Arts Festival, which features performers from all over the world.

The theme of the conference is "The Contribution of Music Education to the Understanding of Foreign Cultures, Past and Present." Special sessions will deal with elementary education, secondary education, teacher training, professional music training and technical media.

The National Music Camp, the Music Educators National Conference and several other American music organizations will host the international conference.
