PARADE, GAME HIGHLIGHT UM HOMECOMING SATURDAY

Homecoming Weekend at the University of Montana will be in full swing Saturday, with the traditional parade, the football game, and class reunions headlining the agenda.

Homecoming king and queen Dave Fred, Marysville, and Cathie Nelson, Missoula, will ride in the parade and reign over other festivities. Fred is a senior in business administration, and Nelson is a junior majoring in philosophy and political science/history.

The parade will form at 10 a.m. at Circle Square and proceed by way of Higgins Avenue to the campus.

The reunion class of 1929 will have brunch from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the home of UM President and Mrs. Richard C. Bowers while the reunion class of 1969 holds a tailgate party at the Dornblaser Stadium parking lot. Other old grads will meet for brunch at the Elks' Club.

Following the UM Grizzly-Idaho State University Bengal football game at Dornblaser Stadium at 2 p.m., residence halls, sororities and fraternities will hold open house.

Homecoming entertainment scheduled at 8 p.m. is a concert by David Bromberg and John Fahey, guitarists, in the University Center Ballroom and a performance of the UM Drama/Dance Department production of "Kiss Me Kate" in the University Theatre.
