LAW SEMINAR SCHEDULED AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

The third in a series of "Bridge-the-Gap" programs will be held at the University Center on the University of Montana campus on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 16 and 17. Friday's workshop will feature R. Keith Strong, partner of Church, Harris, Johnson and Williams, Great Falls, who will speak on the taking of depositions. He is scheduled to speak at 4 p.m.

Saturday's program, which begins at 9 a.m., includes two speakers. Bjarne Johnson, senior partner of Church, Harris, Johnson & Williams, will discuss estate planning in Montana. Urban L. Roth, partner of Poore, McKenzie, Roth, Robischon & Robinson, Butte, will discuss techniques of opening and closing arguments.

The Bridge-the-Gap series is sponsored by the UM School of Law Student Bar Association and the Montana Young Lawyers. Its purpose is to provide a link between the theoretical study and actual practice of law. The Bridge-the-Gap program, which won a national award in 1977, is funded in part by a grant from the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association.

The program is intended for lawyers and law students but is open to interested members of the public as well. Free outlines will be provided for all who attend, and refreshments will be served.
