GRIZZLY WOMEN'S BASKETBALL
2-0 AND READY FOR WESTERN
MONTANA AND MONTANA TECH

MISSOULA---

On Friday, Nov. 30, the UM women's basketball team hosts Western Montana College in a preliminary game to the Grizzly men's game with Doane College.

The women play Montana Tech on Saturday prior to the men's game with Stout State.

Both games start at 5:45 p.m.

The Grizzly women stand 2-0 after trouncing Northern Montana College 62-41 and beating Carroll College 66-40 last weekend at home.

Two freshmen led the scoring against Northern Montana and Carroll. Juli Eckmann from Minot, N.D., had 13 points last Friday against NMC and Janet Ruetten from San Diego, Calif., scored 19 points against Carroll on Saturday.

Western Montana, under first-year coach Jim Corr, has two All-Frontier Conference players, 5-11 forward Joanne Slifka and 6-0 center Ellen Nash. Slifka, from Toston, averaged 12 points and eight rebounds as a freshman last season. Nash, from Darby, averaged nine points and eight rebounds.
