GRIZZLY-BOBCAT BASKETBALL GAME
TO BE AIRED STATEWIDE ON KECI-TV
SATURDAY, JAN. 26

MISSOULA--

Tickets for the intense, intrastate Montana-Montana State basketball game Jan. 26 in Missoula will be scarce, but Montanans who can't get a seat in the Dahlberg Arena will be able to see the game anyway.

KECI-TV, an Eagle Communications Company, will air the game statewide. The program will begin with a pregame scouting report at 7:30 p.m. Tipoff for the contest is 8:10 p.m. The game will be broadcast live.

Steve Snyder, KECI-TV sports director, will call the play-by-play. Dean Alexander, former announcer for MSU, and UM sports information director Dave Guffey will provide the color commentary.

KECI also plans to televise the Grizzly-Bobcat game played in Bozeman Feb. 23.
