May 25, 1926

Meeting called to order by president.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Following committee appointed by president to investigate recommendations regarding participation in State Oratorical Association:

Mike Thomas
Carl McFarland
Dr. Elrod

Freshman Bible again discussed. It was moved that Freshman handbook be published at the expense of A.W.S. and A.S.U.M., respective expense to be prorated according to number of pages used. Motion seconded and carried.

Art League sent representatives to ask for a loan of $150.00 from A.S.U.M. not granted because of shortness of funds.

Recommendation accepted that Ted J. Walker receive a band medal, having fulfilled requirements.

The matter of Freshman football manager was brought up. To be settled next week after Thomas and Smith interview Stewart.

A request from the Athletic Board was read to the effect that Central Board underwrite their resolution to hire a Freshman coach at a salary of $1,200.00 on their responsibility, since the University has refused to do so. Final discussion deferred until next meeting with the expectation of a full representation of members of Central Board.

Freshman week program submitted. To be discussed next week.

Meeting adjourned.

Those present, Maddock, Smith, Elrod, Thomas, Badgley, Miller Eminger,
