CENTRAL BOARD MINUTES FOR 1924-25.

May 29, 1924.

Meeting called to order by president and minutes of last meeting read and approved. Motion made and seconded that, due to ineligibility of Jack Norvell, a special election be held within a few days for yell king, the same election committee of Solvay Andresen, Nat McKown, and Doris Kennedy to be reappointed. Motion made and seconded that new Central Board members banquet out-going members next week, the time and place being left to the discretion of chairman, Ruth Bryson. Information sought by freshman class as to whether they could use part of their class fund to pay the deficit on the "Cub". It was decided to instruct the freshman class that the "Cub" was a private enterprise and should not have any compensation by class funds. It was decided that nothing could be done about Randolph and the "M" books until Reely should present an itemized account of the cost of the book. Stromnes was put in charge of getting student handbooks printed this summer. Motion made and seconded that the policy of charging campus organizations for display advertisements in the Kaimin remain unchanged. Motion made and seconded that ASUM underwrite alumni-student dance on Class Day. On motion, meeting adjourned.

June 5, 1924.

Meeting called to order by president and minutes of last meeting read and approved. Information sought by Roger Williams as to whether Central Board would favor taking over the management of the Masquers and Glee Club. It was decided to underwrite a loan to Masquers but not to underwrite their deficit. Matter left with Stromnes to be arranged later. Christenson of New Northwest left bill for $113 with Central Board to be collected from Randolph for "Little Introducer". Names of Herbert Dunn and John Geraghty submitted for Sentinel business manager. Dunn appointed. Harold Hepner appointed business manager of Kaimin with proviso that he prove suitable. On motion, meeting adjourned.
