GRIZZLIES TO HOLD ANNUAL
SPRING FOOTBALL GAME MAY 17:
"PIG BOWL" TO FOLLOW

Coach Larry Donovan and his University of Montana football staff will put the finishing touches on their 1980 spring practice this Saturday, May 17, at 5 p.m., when the annual spring game is played in Dornblaser Stadium. Immediately after the game the "Pig Bowl," a football game which features local law enforcement officers against Missoula-area businessmen, will be played. That game is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p.m.

Tickets are $5 per family, $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

The Grizzlies open their 1980 season Sept. 13, hosting Simon Fraser University. Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m.
