HUMANITIES COMMITTEE TO FILL EIGHT VACANCIES

MISSOULA--

The Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH) is seeking replacements for five members whose terms expire Dec. 31 and for three others who have resigned their memberships in the past year.

The nonprofit citizens' committee, with offices at the University of Montana, is the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Half the committee are public members and half are academic humanists and administrators.

Persons interested in serving on the committee should send a resume and two letters of recommendation. An individual may also be nominated by another person or by an organization. In the latter case a written indication of the nominee's interest in committee membership must accompany the resume and two letters of recommendation, one of them being the nominating letter.

Nominations will close Sept. 30, according to Dr. Margaret Kingsland, Missoula, MCH executive director. Information about nominations can be obtained by writing the MCH at P.O. Box 8036, Hellgate Station, Missoula, MT 59807, or by telephoning 243-6022.

Committee members to be replaced are Dwight Billedeaux, an education specialist with the Division of Post-Secondary Education for the Bureau of Indian Affairs; Albert Borgmann, Missoula, UM professor of philosophy; Joseph Bourque, Bozeman, associate professor of English at Montana State University; Duane Hampton, professor of history at the UM; Kathy Munson-Young, pastor of the Lower Flathead United Methodist Parish; Charles "Jack" Plumage, president of the Fort Belknap Indian Community Council; Fred Roach, publisher of the Terry Tribune; and William Shields, president of the College of Great Falls.
