The Work and Outcomes

- *To train and condition the body, voice, and mind as an integrated instrument capable of dynamic expression.
- *To engage in moment to moment, beat to beat, human interaction with dramatic purpose.
- *To be able to act in scenes and create characters in plays by modern American playwrights.

After a brief exercise in scene study, analysis and character work, we will rehearse and perform a scene from the plays of O'Neill, Hellman, Williams, Miller and Inge. A second scene will be from the works of Neil Simon and the third scene from the plays of Shepard, Albee, Kopit and Mamet.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/Index.cfm/page/1321.

All Theatre and Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre and Dance Handbook. The Handbook is available online at <http://www.sfa.umt.edu/drama/index.html>.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.
