A special meeting was called to order by Miss Dixon. All members were present except Mr. Griffin. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. DeMers reported the following applications received for the position of manager of the A.S.U.M. store:

Lila B. Egg - University of Washington
Miss O.M. Frances
Mr. A. Higgan - Ames, Iowa
Jeanette O'Merrill - Salt Lake City, Utah
Mary Farrell - U. of Montana
Mr. Fitzgerald - U. of Montana
McPherson Gault - U. of Montana

The secretary made a motion that the secretary eliminate all applications except those of the Montana students. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. Freeman made a motion that Mr. Gault be appointed manager of the store. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. Ireland made a motion that the manager be offered $1600 with a bonus of 1% on the gross sales. No second.

After a discussion Mr. DeMers made a motion that the manager be offered $1600 with a bonus of 1%, on the gross sales. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. DeMers made a motion that the committee should not accept Miss Bierman's petition for secretary of the A.S.U.M., as Miss Bierman had not signed her petition and as she handed it in too late. The motion was seconded and passed. Miss Bruneau's petition for editor of the Sentinel was rejected because it was handed in too late. The committee decided that the clause in the Constitution stating that candidates shall hand their petitions to the secretary five days before election means before the "primary" election.

Mr. Griffin made a motion that the petitions of the following people be accepted:

George Shepard - President
Andrew Boyd - "
Harry Adams - "
Ann Wilson - Vice President
Gertrude Clark - " "
Fay Collins - Secretary
Steve Sullivan - Delegate-at-large
William Larkin - " " "
Fred Daylis - " " "
R. B. Ahern - Yell King
Pat Keeley - " "
Clyde Murphy - Manager
Sadie Erickson - Kaimin Editor
Caroline McCann - Sentinel Editor
