Mr. Winestine is looking for one or two young men interested in department store retailing.

Mr. Tipling and Mr. Winestine will meet in Craig 212 at 4 o'clock today with those interested and will be available for personal conferences in Craig 212 tomorrow morning. They emphasize that any student will be considered, regardless of his major.

Saturday's Game Half Hour Early

Because of radio broadcasting schedules, Saturday's Grizzly-Bobcat game will begin at 7:30 p.m. instead of the customary 8 p.m. Friday's game will start at the regular time, 8 p.m.

Doors will open at 7:15 p.m. Friday and at 6:45 p.m. Saturday.

Students will be asked to show their activity cards at both games, along with their regular tickets, according to Student Union Secretary Anne Anderson.

WOMEN STUDENTS ASKED TO REPORT

All women students whose homes are not in Missoula and who live off the campus are asked to report to the housing and employment office in University hall, Housing Secretary Peggy T. Leigh said yesterday.

Mrs. Leigh stated that the University must have the Missoula addresses of these women in cases of emergency and to insure closer contact between the University and non-campus residents.

This does not apply to women living in sororities, the Co-op house, or the veterans' housing units.

Tonight at 6:45 in the ROTC building, Company E, Fourth regiment of the National Society Scabbard and Blade, will hold initiation ceremonies. The pledge class is the first since the ROTC honorary fraternity was reactivated last Dec. 12.

A nucleus company consisting of prewar members under the leadership of Francis Peterson, Missoula, has been directing the reorganization thus far.

Twelve pledges will be initiated tonight: William Denend, Centraia, Wash.; Robert Fullerton, Missoula; George Jacobson, Missoula; Hugh Kidder, Kalispell; Gaylord Lansrud, Medicine Lake; Allison Libra, Missoula; Robert Petty, Hot Springs, S. D.; George Schulz, Missoula; Robert Thompson, Billings; David Troyka, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ralph Herriot, Laurel; Jean Sticht, Missoula; and Donald Whitman, Grand Forks, N. D.

William Denend announced Wednesday that the military ball will be held on April 12.

Student Directors Will Cast Shows

Three student directors will cast original plays in the Student Union theater at 7:30 tonight.

Joan Carroll, Corvallis, urges all students to try out for parts. The bill will consist of a comedy, a psychological drama, and a romantic play.

The plays will be directed by Miss Carroll; Mary Morrow, Oak Park, Ill., and John Gregory, Missoula. Murrel Pannett and Ronald-Bel Stiffler will supervise the production.

Many Tickets Still Available For Games

Approximately 800 tickets are still available for the Friday night Grizzly-Bobcat game, and about 1,000 are unclaimed for Saturday night's game, Student Union Secretary Anne Anderson announced yesterday.

Beginning at 1 p.m. today, these tickets will be made available to students, whether or not they already have tickets for one of the games.

In this manner, it is possible for several hundred students to see both games, Mrs. Anderson said.

The Student Union office will be distributing tickets this afternoon and tomorrow.

Activity tickets must be presented to secure tickets, and cards will be required at the games.

Forensic Bout Set for April

Fifty colleges and universities have been invited to compete in the Northwest Intercollegiate speech tournament here April 18-19, according to Prof. Ralph Y. McGinnis, director of university forensics.

On the same dates MSU will be host to the Montana Intercollegiate debate and oratory tournament, resumed after a four-year war-time lapse.

Competition is scheduled in debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and oral interpretation, with visiting professors and MSU faculty members as judges.

MSU's chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary speech fraternity, will award trophies to the winning school in each event.

Florida, Idaho, Gonzaga, and Washington State have notified Professor McGinnis that they will compete in the Northwest tournament.

MARCH OF DIMES COLLECTS $247

Al Merriam's band will play for the dance in the Student Union building following the Grizzly-Bobcat basketball game.

McCain To Speak

Pres. James A. McCain will speak to the Helena Chamber of Commerce tonight at its annual dinner on "A Glimpse of What the Future Holds."

The clause was adopted at the request of the University in order to assure the veterans majoring in law and pharmacy of receiving their full educational benefits.

Previously, law and pharmacy majors had been requested to sign a waiver to a portion of their educational benefits under the G. I. Bill of Rights if the cost to the Veteran's administration exceeded $500 for the nine-month year.

Pres. James A. McCain announced that the Veteran's administration pays the University approximately $230 per veteran during the current year and that next year the figure is expected to decrease to about $200.

Included in this payment are incidental, registration, building, Student Union, health, and student activity fees, amounting to about (please see page two)

Station KGVO Will Broadcast Bobcat Series

Both games of the Grizzly-Bobcat series this week end will be broadcast over KGVO. The decision was made at the Tuesday meeting of Central Board.

KGVO agreed to donate the time if ASMSU would pay the costs of installing a line between Main hall and the university gymnasium. The broadcast will not be commercial, ASMSU Pres. Jerry Anderson, Helena, said.

The business manager of the Kaimin will be paid $25 a month for a nine-month period beginning Sept. 15 and ending June 15. The motion was passed upon the recommendation of Publications board and supersedes former pay scales which allowed the business manager $25 a month for an eight-month period.

Publications board pointed out that the Kaimin business manager's duties require him to begin work about two weeks before fall quarter and continue until two weeks after spring quarter.

Martin Farris, Troy, was sworn in as freshman delegate by Anderson.

There will be a special meeting of all Bear Paws with Assistant Graduate Manager Jack Hoon today in the basement of the law building at 5 p.m.

More on Community Concert Tickets

After last week's editorial about Community Concert tickets, several persons requested more details about the "$2.50 that was added to the student activity fees last spring to cover these concerts."

We don't know where the above idea originated, but it is not based upon fact.

Last spring, the student body voted 736 to 199 in favor of the following referendum, which was placed on the election ballots:

"Are you in favor of increasing the Student Activity Fee $2 per quarter, the justification for this raise being as follows: Central Board feels that additional funds are needed for the operation of student activities, to take care of the Federal tax, expansion of minor sports program, to restore baseball, a literary magazine, expanded outside entertainment?"

This bill did not increase the fees $2.50, but only $2. Further, it did not even mention Community Concerts. The wording was plain enough that the 736 who approved it could not interpret it to mean that Community Concerts would be presented free.

Previously, fees had been $5.50 per quarter, so this action increased them to their present $7.50.

This business of charging $2.25 for season tickets to Community Concerts or 75 cents each for three concerts and $1 for the fourth did not originate this year. This was decided by our delegates on Central Board last spring, and it was reported in the May 3, 1946, Kaimin.

In that issue, the seating arrangement—the same one which caused so much discussion this winter—was explained, and not one dissenting vote was heard at the time.

People have asked about these admission charges. Forgetting the $2 addition to fees, let's consider it this way. Central Board bought 1,400 seats for each of this year's four concerts. These seats cost $3 each for the season, far less than the price townspeople must pay. Multiplying the 1,400 by $3 we have $4,200 paid for seats at all concerts. One thousand season tickets were put up for sale at $2.25 each, which would net, if all were sold, $2,250. Four hundred door tickets were put up for sale, at 75 cents each for the first three concerts, $1 for the last one. If all were sold, this would bring in $300 for each of the first three concerts and $400 for the last, or a total of $1,300. Adding $1,300 and $2,250, we have $3,550, or $650 below the $4,200. Central Board is able to make up this deficit to the extent of $1,500 from activity fees.

While it would appear that ASMSU (that's us) is coming out ahead by $850 on the deal (the difference between $650 and $1,500) actually this is not so, because not all the tickets have been sold. Every empty seat costs ASMSU money.

Nobody is making money from our purchase of Community Concert tickets. It is surprising that more people aren't sufficiently interested in these concerts to give them more support than the last one received.

SX-PDT, Corbin-Jumbo Quints Tangle Tuesday

Tuesday night the Phi Delt and Sigma Chis, both leaders in the current intramural cage race, will tangle. The team representatives have announced that no admission will be charged but contributions will go to the March of Dimes.

The Sigma Chi-Phi Delt tilt will start at 7 p.m. and the Corbin hall-Jumbo hall game is slated for 8:30 p.m.

There will be no Press club tonight.

Instead, plans for the Press Club banquet, which will be March 4 in the Orchard Homes country clubhouse, are being made by organizing committees.

Press club will meet again next Thursday, announced Judy Beeler, Billings, program chairman.

Maucker Backs Money Given For Education

Money spent on education is good investment from the viewpoint of American business, Dr. J. W. Maucker, dean of Education, told the Hamilton Parents-Teachers association Monday night.

The attitude of business toward support of schools seems to be changing from concentration on questions of cost alone to consideration of what the money invested will yield in economic betterment, Dr. Maucker said.

Dr. Maucker based his talk on a publication of studies made by the United States Chamber of Commerce to determine the relationship between the economic status and educational level of the people of this country.

The United States Chamber of Commerce found that in cities, states, and other areas where the level of education was high, business activity was correspondingly high, regardless of natural resources and other factors.

Business activity included per capita retail sales, telephone sales, rent paid for homes, and magazine circulation.

On the basis of these findings the Chamber of Commerce report states among other conclusions that (1) education is an essential instrument through which commerce, industry, and agriculture can be expanded (2) mere technical education is not enough. Cultural education must accompany technical training to develop the appetites of the people for a better living.

Russian Course May Be Offered

Elementary Russian may be offered as a course next fall quarter if sufficient demand is shown by students, Dr. Bart E. Thomas, professor of Spanish, announced yesterday.

"The modern language department will give the course on an experimental basis for at least two quarters," Dr. Thomas said. "The course will be regularly scheduled five times a week and will carry credit toward graduation but not toward satisfaction of a language requirement."

Dr. Thomas asked that students wanting to take Russian see him in Old Science 206 before Feb. 7.

VA Contract Limits Tuition

 $60 per year plus a "cost of instruction" figure which will amount to about $170 for the current year.

The "cost of instruction" figure is determined by dividing the number of credits, for which all students are enrolled, into the sum total of the salaries of faculty members.

During the 1945-46 year the figure was $6.42 per quarter credit. This year the average is $4.08 minus the loss in revenues due to the $500 ceiling placed on pharmacy and law majors. For the next academic year the figure is expected to drop to between $3.50 and $3.60.

President McCain noted that since the administrative and physical plant costs can not be charged, the amount paid to the University represents only approximately two-thirds of the actual cost of educating a student.

President McCain also reminded veterans who attend the University beyond the entitlements of the G. I. Bill of Rights that registration and incidental fees will be waived for pre-war residents of Montana by action of the Montana legislature.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Someone erred—no straight A's for this lad. Nice thought, though.

(Someone did err. Several names did appear on the registrar's office list of straight A's which should not have been there.—Editor.)

Dear Editor,

Students taking the course "An Introduction to Social Science," are required to take notes on all outside reading assigned to them.

There are available only about 30 copies of the textbook in which the reading has been assigned. The 600 (approximately) students taking the course find it difficult to obtain books to do the assigned reading. It requires considerably more time to read and take notes than just to read the material. Why should the additional burden of taking notes be imposed? Maybe the instructors are trying to enforce study, or maybe they are attempting to improve student reading habits. Is taking notes on reading conducive to better reading habits?

Perhaps enforced note taking would be practical if the book shortage, which the instructors know about, did not exist.

Are the instructors being unreasonable? I think they are—if an instructor does not have enough confidence in the students' maturity to assume that the student is capable of study, his job is vain and his talents probably could be put to better use elsewhere.

OIS AMENDS CONSTITUTION

The Organized Independents passed an amendment to their constitution Tuesday night, saying that the four senior members of the council were to resign and four new ones were to be elected at the beginning of each quarter.

OIS plans a rollerskating party for members at the Avon skating rink on Saturday, Feb. 1 at 8:30. There will be 25 cents admission charge.

GOLD ROOM, AFTER THE GRIZZLY-BOBCAT GAME

Dear Editor:

In regard to Miss Bette Mae Bay's assertion that we have "Socialized Medicine" at Montana State University, I would like to make a few comments.

In the first place, the mere fact that music students, special students, married women over 30, or a nun are not required to pay this fee, alone, discredits the assumption of "socialized medicine." Rather, if we had "socialized medicine," every person, regardless of position or standing, would be required to pay this fee.

Also, I would like to point out that the system of "socialized medicine" includes the entire medical care of a person, regardless of the nature of the affliction. But, according to the Montana State University student health service, no allowance or payments are made for eye refractions and glasses, dental services and dental X-rays, special nurses, injuries occurring through accidents off the campus, allergy and obstetrical cases, treatment or hospitalization for chronic illnesses, elective surgery, unauthorized hospitalizations, physicians, and surgeon fees, for wives, children, relatives, or dependents of students. Therefore you see this system is not "socialized medicine."

I believe that in case of serious illness in which X-rays, laboratory work, surgical diagnosis, etc. is required, the average student would much rather have paid the $4 per quarter than pay the cost of this expensive work himself.

R. Dean Keith.

Fessenden Issues Early Grid Invite

Coach Doug Fessenden has issued a pre-season invitation to everyone interested in trying out for spring football training.

If the weather permits, the first call probably will come the first week in spring quarter, according to Fessenden.

The coach said that the 30-day limitation on spring training placed by the PCC is enough to give every prospect just consideration. He will especially look for promising tackles, ends, and full-backs.

Jim Dillon, New York, and Boney Gordon, Kalispell, will be the linemen to attract most of the pre-season attention, said Fessenden.

MSU Rifle Team Scores 1,782 Points Against Penn State

Paced by George Hoyem, Thompson Falls, who made an individual score of 368, the ROTC rifle team fired a total score of 1,782 points in its "mail order" match with Penn State, M-Sgt. J. D. Swenty, team coach, announced yesterday.

The outcome of the match will remain unknown until the Penn State scores are received here, Swenty said.

He pointed out that the 1,782-point total bettered by 94 points the team's last match score, when the ROTC squad out-fired University of Wyoming riflemen.

Other individual scores were: 364, fired by Robert Petty, Hot Springs, S. D.; 361, Richard Freed, Cutbank; 348, Rockwood Brown, Billings; and 341, Gay Lansrud, Medicine Lake.

The squad's next matches will be with the University of Pittsburgh and Michigan State college. Both these matches will be fired before Feb. 1.

SWIMMIN' WOMEN MEET TODAY

Undergraduate women students who are interested in the telegraphic swimming meet sponsored by the Aqua Maid club, which will be held in March, will meet at the pool this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mrs. Mary Allender, assistant physical education instructor, announced yesterday.

Skiers Plan Look Out Trip

Because of poor snow conditions at the Diamond Mountain run, University Ski club groups are planning week-end trips to Look Out Pass, Ida., Bill Tremper, Missoula, president of the club, announced yesterday.

The groups will travel in private cars, leaving the Student Union building at 9 a.m. on both Saturday and Sunday, Tremper said.

Approximately 35 ski enthusiasts are included in the present group, although all those interested are asked to sign up at the business office before noon Friday. "The larger the group, the more cars that will be needed," Tremper stated.

Girls leaving Saturday morning must have their parents' written consent, he said.

Phi Sigs, OIS, SAE, Forestry Hoopsters Win

In the intra-mural basketball tangles Monday and Tuesday at the Men's gym Phi Sigma Kappa beat South hall to strengthen their position in the league, the Independents beat Sigma Nu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon won from Corbin hall, and the Foresters won from Theat Chi.

PSK Scores Upset

Phi Sigma Kappa upset the favored South hall quintet Tuesday night, 45 to 40, to definitely loom as a strong contender for the intermural league title. South hall had won their three previous games by large scores.

The Phi Sigs, who dropped a thriller to the league-leading Sigma Chis last week, gained the lead in the first quarter and held it throughout the tilt. The first half ended with them in the lead, 30 to 28.

The last half of play slowed down and became rough, with South hall's Schwend leaving the game via the foul route. Johnson, Phi Sig forward, was the outstanding player on the floor, setting up plays, controlling the ball, and sparkling on defense. Forsyth hooped 18 points for the Phi Sigs, followed by Ellison with 10. McManus led South hall scoring with 10 counters. Thornfeldk and Schwend had 9 and 8, respectively.

Sigma Nu Lose

A fighting Organized Independent squad rallied past the previously undefeated Sigma Nu team to eke out a 35 to 34 win.

The Sigma Nu five, with Brennan and Popisil hitting the hoop, gained a commanding lead in the first quarter. The second canto was also strictly a Sigma Nu affair and the half ended, 24 to 15.

The OIS power exploded in the last half, and driving in for shots they narrowed the margin held by their opponents. Dave Lane, who had gone scoreless in the first half, looped nine points.

McKie also potted 9 for the winners, but they were not as timely as the speedy Lane's. Brennan scored 11, followed closely by Popisil, with 9, to lead Sigma Nu scorers.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon rolled over Corbin hall, 72 to 34, and Foresters edged Theta Chi, 27 to 23, in Monday's intra-mural basketball tilts. SAE took early command of the game against Corbin hall and led, 11 to 5, at the quarter. At half-time, SAE led, 23 to 9.

Thorsrud with 16 points, Briney with 11, and O'Hern with 11 led the SAE attack. Hansen sparked the Corbin hall team with 9 points.

Similar Backgrounds Prove Important in Marriage

Common backgrounds of education, living standards, and religion should be considered when choosing a husband or wife, Dr. Lawrence S. Bee told a Kaimin reporter yesterday. A sense of real companionship, he said, is essential.

"Only in Hollywood or in novels do we find that Cinderella marries Prince Charming and lives happily ever after," said Dr. Bee. "The people who make happy marriages are usually those of similar backgrounds who complement each other's lives."

The Utah State social psychologist answered questions between closing sessions of MSU's Courtship and Marriage Institute at which he has been main speaker.

Main factor in unhappy marriages, according to Dr. Bee is emotional immaturity. The degree of a person's emotional maturity, he explained, may be shown by the extent to which he considers others ahead of himself.

The emotionally mature person, with proper guidance and awareness of different backgrounds, will have better chances in a marriage involving different religious, educational, and economic environments, according to Dr. Bee.

Touching on the subject of religious differences in marriage, Dr. Bee said that the difference in creeds was of less importance than the extent to which each religion governed the actions of the individual. He advised particular caution when contemplating a marriage across religious lines.

"Pre-marital counseling can do a great deal toward helping people anticipate and weigh their strengths and weaknesses, but it is much more efficient if accomplished by a course in family life education to take care of problems which may arise in later life," he concluded.
