GRIZZLIES TRAVEL TO BOISE
TO FACE BRONCOS OCT. 4TH

MISSOULA--

THE GAME: The University of Montana will travel to Boise, ID to play the Boise State Broncos in 21,500-seat Bronco Stadium (artificial surface). Game time Saturday, Oct. 4, 1980 is at 7:30 p.m. (MDT).

LAST WEEK: The Grizzlies dropped their Big Sky Conference opener, losing to the University of Idaho, 42-0. The Broncos played Montana State, narrowly losing, 18-17.

NOTES ON THE GAME: It was the first time the Grizzlies have been shut out twice in one season since 1968, when they were blanked by South Dakota (21-0) and Northern Arizona (18-0). The leading offensive player for UM was freshman quarterback Marty Mornhinweg, who passed for 81 yards (8 of 15).

Boise overcame a 10-0 halftime deficit, only to lose the game in the final minute of play on a two-point conversion by the MSU QB. Bronco kicker Kenrick Camerud narrowly missed a 52-yard field goal attempt with time running out on the clock.

THE SERIES: The Broncos lead the series 6 to 3. Oddly enough, all three Grizzly wins were in Boise. BSU defeated UM 37-35 last season, while the Grizzlies won 15-7 in Boise the season before. BSU won the first meeting 47-24 in 1971. The scores:

1971-BSU 47, UM 24	1976-UM 17, BSU 14
1972-UM 48, BSU 28	1977-BSU 43, UM 17
1973-BSU 55, UM 7	1978-UM 15, BSU 7
1974-BSU 56, UM 42	1979-BSU 37, UM 35
1975-BSU 39, UM 28

LAST YEAR: The Grizzlies outscored the Broncos 14-9 in the final quarter, but it wasn't enough. The score was tied 14-all at halftime. Rocky Klever led all rushers with 137 yards for two touchdowns. He also had two catches for 79 yards and a TD. He is doubtful in this year's 10th meeting of the schools.

BSU QB Joe Aliotti accounted for 381 yards, passing for 330, with the strong BSU offense gaining a lofty 618 total yards.

Grizzly linebacker Kent Clausen had 18 tackles in the loss.

DONOVAN ON BSU:

"As the team with the best Big Sky record last season Boise State has to be considered as one of the conference's top teams. Coming off our last two games, we know we really have our hands full. The coaches and players know what they have to do, and that's up to them and no one else. Boise State is a talent-laden team, with great running backs, and a quarterback that runs the team like good quarterbacks do."
