MISSOULA:

CUTLINE - Ruby Carpenter, Livingston, and Gary Patrick, Missoula, stand in front of some of the 14 display cases that were donated to the University of Montana geology department recently by the State Council of Rock and Mineral Clubs. Carpenter is president of the statewide organization and Patrick is the state fossil chairman. The cases were built by members of the Missoula Hellgate Mineral Society and will be used to display the University's extensive fossil and geology collections (UM photo by Jon Flies).
