Three sophomore coeds have been awarded the Wade Riechel Memorial Scholarship for their fine scholastic performance and outstanding citizenship displayed during their freshman year at the University of Montana.

Adrew Cogswell, UM dean of students, reports the winners of the $200 per year scholarship for three years are Bonnie Lee Rohrer, Billings, Sheila M. Johansen, Terry, and Anita A. Bell, Great Falls.

The scholarship was established by Mrs. Olive Biechel in memory of her husband, a 1921 UM graduate and prominent rancher in Montana and Canada, who died in 1931.

Miss Rohrer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Rohrer of Billings. She is a graduate from Geraldine High School and is majoring in elementary education.

Miss Johansen is a graduate of Terry High School and is majoring in German. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Revell of Terry.

Miss Bell is a graduate of Great Falls Senior High School and is a journalism major. She is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Bell of Great Falls.

Dean Cogswell pointed out the scholarship is quite restrictive and candidates are evaluated on moral values and personal habits as well as scholastic performance.
