The surest way to corrupt a youth is to instruct him to hold in higher esteem those who think alike than those who think differently. -Nietzsche

AIM:
The purpose of this course is to discover ways to create and promote learning through dramatic teaching. We will explore ways of developing and implementing teaching strategies appropriate for drama classes, theatre in education, and educational theatre. We will also be looking into specific abilities that drama, theatre, and acting offer participants.

OUTCOMES:
In this setting the student will:

- Display an ability to present and facilitate an engaging and dramatic lesson;
- Display an ability to design and implement a dramatic and structurally sound curriculum;
- Understand the components of a TIE presentation;
- Cultivate an ability to sell the art form to the non-artist;
- Critically view teaching styles and methods (theirs and their peers); and,
- Articulate a personal teaching philosophy for teaching theatre.

REQUIREMENTS:
- Mini lesson presentations (10%);
- Full lesson presentations (20%);
- TIE presentation (20%);
- A one page teaching philosophy (10%).
- Authentic practice: a lesson planned and presented to another classroom, plus a reflection paper (20%)
- A planned Theatre/Drama unit of at least 6 classes and no more than 10 classes (20%)

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at http://www.umt.edu/theatredance/about/handbook.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student’s time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student’s grade.

The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with DSS, please contact DSS in Lommasson 154. I will work with you and DSS to provide an appropriate accommodation.
