AERIAL PHOTOGRAMMETRY
COURSE SCHEDULED AT UM

MISSOULA--

A basic course in aerial photogrammetry emphasizing the production of accurate resource maps will be given in the Science Complex at the University of Montana Dec. 8 through 12.

The course, titled "Aerial Photogrammetry: Mapping Natural Resources," will be taught by Frederick L. Gerlach, associate professor of forestry at the UM.

The $250 fee per participant includes the text, handouts and lab materials. Persons who take the course for credit must pay an additional $20 recording fee. The course may be taken for two undergraduate or graduate credits in forestry.

Information about enrollment is available from the Center for Continuing Education, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; telephone (406) 243-2900. Information about the program may be obtained by writing or calling Gerlach at the UM School of Forestry, (406) 243-6511.
